Mr. and Mrs. Sam Twiddy Wed 50 years On March 12th

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Twiddy were "at home" to their many friends, neighbours and relatives on March 12th to celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. Twiddy was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burkitt, Madoc, Ont. Mr. Twiddy was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Twiddy, of Crookston.

The large farm home was decorated with potted 'mums and gladioli, presented by the Presbyterian congregation; Mrs. John Wallace; their nieces, and friends of Niagara Falls, N.Y.

The neighbors presented them with a coffee table and vase; the family a radio, gold cuff links and brooch.

Mr. and Mrs. Twiddy were married 50 years ago in the bride's home by the Rev. B. Tucker U.C. and were attended by the groom's sister, Mrs. Mabel Orr, of Port Arthur, Ont. and the bride's cousin, Chris, Burkitt, now deceased. After a brief honeymoon trip they resided with the groom's grandfather for 2 years and then they moved to their present home.

During the afternoon congratulations were received from the Hon. Robt. Stanfield leader of the opposition, Lee Grills M.P. and the Women's Liberal Association of Belleville. Mrs. Clarke Rollins on behalf of Clarke T. Rollins M.P.P. presented a scroll from The Hon. John Roberts, Prime Minister of Ont. Mr. and Mrs. Twiddy are Conservatives and belonged to the United Church until recently when that Church was dissolved they went to the Presbyterian Church near by.

Mr. Twiddy has belonged to the L.O.L. for over 50 years, and Mrs. Twiddy belongs to the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church.

They were blessed with three of a family (Phyllis), Mrs. Arnold Creasor of Teeterville, Ont. (Doris), Mrs. Gaynor Rendell, of Deseronto, and Ross who lives near by. They have 6 grandchildren.

Among the many visitors who called were, Mrs. Holmes, of Belleville, Grand Mistress of L.O.B.A. for Eastern Ontario, and a friend, Mrs. Bertrand, daughter of the late Rev. J. Everson.

Telegrams were received from the Teeterville congregation where Mr. and Mrs. Creasor served; Mrs. Mabel Orr, Port Arthur, and also a telephone call from Rev. Sam Delve, former minister on Ivanhoe charge.

The wedding cake was made by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ross Twiddy. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sidner Reid, Mrs. Don Reid, Mrs. Clara Hagerman, Mrs. Lorne Hagerman, Mrs. Russell Lewis, Mrs. Harold Reid, Mrs. Ross Twiddy and Mrs. Albert Twiddy. Guests were received by their two daughters and son Ross.

In the afternoon Mr. Gaynor Rendell sang "Bless This House" with Mrs. Harold Elliott at the piano and in the evening the same with William Rendall at the piano.

Rebekah Lodge News

Laurel Rebekah Lodge held its regular meeting on March 25th at the Lodge Hall. Two officers were absent.

During the business portion of the meeting representatives were nominated to attend the Annual Session of Rebekah Assemblies at Toronto in June and to the district meetings.

The C.P.T. Committee reported that they are sponsoring a 3 Act Comedy "Don't Darken My Door," presented by the Frankford H.C. in the Stirling Theatre on Friday April 11th at 8 p.m. Anyone wishing to buy a ticket to this delightful play may do so by contacting a member of the Stirling Oddfellows or Rebekahs.

Following lodge a lovely lunch of doughnuts, cheese and coffee was served in the dining hall by Sisters Della Carlisle, Jean Pollock and Irene Pollock. Sister Jean Pollock got a pleasant surprise when N.G. Sister Pat Merrill presented her with a lovely decorated birthday cake and all joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to Sister Jean, who responded by thanking Sister Pat and Sister Irene Pollock for the cake.

Sister Marion Heath thanked the lunch committee on behalf of all

Former Resident Passes

Word was received that Harry McGee passed away suddenly at his home in San Jose, California.

Former resident of Stirling, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McGee of town.

He is survived by his wife Gladys, two daughters, Bonnie and Sheila and four grandchildren, also one brother Art of Royal Oaks, Mich. Mr. McGee is the nephew of Mr. Henry Tulloch; and cousin of Misses Gena and Rosa Spry and Mrs. Earl Fox all of Stirling.

Dan Harris Award To Russell Hagerman

The Dan Harris award, previously awarded to the student contributing the most to athletics in the Stirling Rawdon District High School, was recently presented to the Stirling Minor Hockey Association, by Doug Harris, formerly a teacher at the High School.

With the closing of our High School, Mr. Harris wished to continue the remembrance of his younger brother and asked that the award be presented to the player who best achieved sportsmanship and leadership in the Stirling Minor Hockey Association teams.

The selection was made by the coaches and managers of the five teams involved and the Stirling Minor Hockey Association is pleased to announce that this year's winner is Russell Hagerman of The Stirling Juvenile Hockey Club.

The announcement of the award was made by the Stirling Minor Hockey Association president, Bert Bastedo, following the Legion Novice and Pee Wee playoffs on Saturday night.

The Bucket Brigade

Three of Senior Citizen's lovely kids served a nice lunch last Thursday. They were Martha, Florence and Flossie. Ross Hoard got in the picture too as he passed a treat of chocolates around. We welcomed Mrs. Barton of Springbrook as a visitor. Padre Crook was absent although he did bob in and tell a story, and then bobbed out quick for fear of some reaction to his yarn. It leaked out that Helen Reid was to have a birthday on March 29 and we sang birthday greetings to her. Pres. Fred thanked all for lunch and treat and cards were enjoyed.

Back in the gay 90's we had a quaint type of fire engine. It was housed in a small brick building on the south west corner of the Public School ground. It was a side pumper and had running boards on either side where men stood and pumped it up and down much the same as a hand car is propelled by the section men on the railroad. There were also racks of fire-red buckets on the walls. These were used by the bucket brigade to pass water along for fire fighting. Some years later we got a steam engine, horse drawn. The main water supply was Rawdon creek. To reach farther out several cement tanks were built underground. One at Don William's home and one in the east end. The bell from the original fire engine was small but shrill. It was mounted on wood and used by the old Community Service Club as a gong. "I wonder where it went to." In those days there was a pump in almost every yard. One is still in existence at Bill Morton's home. Keep it in repair Bill, for it is perhaps one of our oldest memories of the gay 90's.

Some day I will tell you about "The Dobbie Monument." That's a good water story too. Do you know in these days of pop, coke and what have you, water is not a bad drink. You should try it sometime.

ISSUE MARCH 28, 1944

Four crew members of a large RCAF bomber on a routine flight from Malton Airport, near Toronto, parachuted to safety early Monday morning north of Springbrook. The plane crashed a few minutes later, nine miles east of Tweed and was a complete wreck. The blinding snowstorm caused the pilot to lose his bearings and when his radio failed to function and his supply of gasoline ran short the four crew members baled out.

Following an illness of three weeks' duration, Mrs. William J. Dettlor, Oak Lake, passed away in Kingston General Hospital Saturday morning.

Former RectorRev. F. Downing Dies

Rev. Frederick Downing Chaplain of the Tyendinaga Mohawk reserve and a man who devoted much of his ministry to Indian affairs, died suddenly while conducting a funeral service in his church Friday.

The 64-year old Anglican clergyman was stricken with a fatal heart seizure during final rites for Charlene Maracle, a five-year-old girl who drowned in a creek near her reserve home.

Mr. Downing rested in the reserve's historic Christ Church, centre of his chaplaincy, until Monday, when Archbishop K. C. Evans of Kingston conducted the service.

Born in Kingston, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Downing, he graduated from St. John College, University of Manitoba, and immediately went to serve among the Ojibway Indians in Northern Ontario's Keewatin district.

He served in the charge 19 years, then enlisted six years in the Royal Canadian Air Force during World War II. He returned to his Keewatin parish for another two years and then, in 1948 was appointed to Tweed parish. Afterward, he served various Eastern Ontario charges — Athens, Merrickville, Burritt's Rapids — before being appointed rector at Stirling in 1961.

He accepted his Tyendinaga appointment with obvious enthusiasm, and immediately became an active researcher of the Parish's place in early Canadian history.

His work revived interest throughout the Quinte district in the role of the Mohawks as the first Christian settlers in the area and in the importance of Christ Church as a repository of local history.

Near the church he rediscovered the grave of John Ochechuskon, a Mohawk believed to be the first lay Anglican catechist in North America.

Mr. Downing is survived by his wife, the former Glenys Gertrude Taylor and two daughters — Mrs. Ford (Anne) Hutchings, and Margaret Downing, both of Toronto.

Mr. Downing was buried in the Mohawk graveyard at Christ Church.

Carmel

(Mrs. Arthur Pyear)

The last card party of the season was held on Friday evening in the Community Hall with eight tables in play. Prize winners were Mr. Bernie Hearn, Mr. Clifford Hubble, Mr. Arthur Pyear, Mrs. Brian Sayers, Mrs. Robt Hearn and Mrs. Charles Smith. The committee in charge were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pyear and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Towles. Lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

Leslie Pyear spent a few days of the vacation with his brother Barry at Guelph University.

Mr. George Sheldon and children, Bay Ridges spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Grills attended the funeral of Mrs. Grills' aunt the late Mrs. Margaret Johnston at the Grant Funeral Home, Belleville, on Tuesday.

Debbie Grills, 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Grills returned home from Belleville Hospital after two weeks treatment there.

Mrs. Jack Wardough and children, Belleville, and Mrs. Roscoe Robson, Holloway spent a day with Mrs. Douglas Pyear.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Harry and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Fleming, Storo.

St. Paul's U.C.W. Unit Four

The members of "Faith Unit" were greeted by hostess Mrs. M. Aythart as they assembled in the church parlour for their March meeting.

Mrs. George Carlisle, President opened the meeting. A moment of silence was observed in tribute to Mrs. Earl Luery, a beloved member, recently deceased.

Mrs. M. Aythart read a letter from Street's Haven home in Toronto telling of plans under way for the building of a new home which was badly needed, and of the need for clothing parcels.

The women decided to apply the legacy of $50. from the estate of Mrs. Mary Vandervoort, toward the purchase of the new piano for the church auditorium.

Mrs. H. Donnan assisted by Mrs. A. Brooks and Mrs. W. DeJong conducted the worship service. The Scripture lesson from Matthew 28. was read in unison.

Mrs. Donnan read an article on the Proof of Christ's resurrection. Other ideas on the same, were given by Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. DeJong, pointing out the proofs as seen in the Disciples themselves, in the development and growth of the Christian Church, and change of the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week and in records of historians.

The offering was dedicated by Mrs. Donnan.

Several chapters from "Man Alive" were capably presented by Mrs. W. Harlow and proved enlightening and well worth further study and thought.

The first Chapter dealt with Man's Motives and impulses. Sometimes we despise ourselves for behaving as we do and the good we wish to do, we fail to accomplish.

How can we change? A house may be full of wonderful appliances but have no electricity, no power. Maybe that is our trouble. Being a Christian involves all of life, and that requires confidence in the love and power of God.

The key of faith unlocks the door to the power of the Spirit.

Having faith means trusting God to bring about ultimate good, though we cannot envisage it.

We must feel that we belong to God and his hand is upon our lives. Are we making ourselves available, so through us, God's power may be released in human relations, against injustice, prejudice, and suffering? The study of the scripture shows that man is responsible for what he does. Though there are evil forces active God is also at work, and our choice of following one or the other is entirely our own. We should make full use of our minds in making decisions and bear in mind the results on our lives and others. There arose many questions such as, How do we choose the right from the wrong? What is conscience and can it be depended on? May conscience be dulled by doing wrong repeatedly?

Mrs. Carlisle thanked the ladies who took part in the program, and suitably closed the meeting.

The social hour was much enjoyed and appreciation was expressed.

Mr. Glenn Bennett acted as chairman for the evening. Joan Bush, Alta Carr, Beatrice Harry and Mrs. Roy Bush read appropriate and somewhat humorous selections. Jean Utman conducted a game for the men. Gladys Conley and Norman Rosebush favoured those present with several musical selections. Harry Jeffries also entertained with some musical numbers. Glenn Bennett conducted a few quizzes. Karen Wood and Frank DeHaan sang a duet. Lois Bennett then read an address after which Ernest Carr, Jack Donohoe, Sue Bush, June DeHaan, and Karen Wood presented gifts to each member of the family. Garrit, Wilhemina, Nellie, Mary, Betty and Fred voiced appreciative thanks, inviting everyone to visit them in their new home.

Your Hometown Weekly

(by G. C. Craven)
(In Ridgeway Dominion)

I've just returned from a convention of weekly newspapermen. And again I was impressed by the newspaper, any hometown newspaper which labors, often against impossible odds, to publish a weekly paper, and meet both the deadline and the Never sell the hometown paper short. However inferior you may consider it, you'd be lost without it. No other newspaper would be so willing to print what is vital to you and trivial to everyone else. No other cares so deeply about your town and its problems.

The people who put the paper together put up with the abuse of ignorance and the scorn of sophistication. Some weeks nothing fits in the pages. Other weeks there isn't enough to fill them. Water leaks into the basement. An advertiser cancels an ad two hours before press time.

Up and down Main street the subscribers complain "The paper never gets anything right" or "Anybody who'd go in the newspaper business is crazy." Only the last comment is accurate. A newspaperman is a little crazy from fighting to survive in a job of doing his best while expecting the worst. When you read your hometown newspaper read between the lines, and there you will find a record of your times put together with honest sweat, varying degrees of skill, machinery occasionally held in place with rubber bands, but mostly held together with love.

It is against the law to throw lighted cigarettes from cars.

Stirling Public Library Board Pays Tribute Mrs. Gordon W. Bailey

(By Irene Potts, Librarian)

The Stirling Public Library Board, in holding its regular meeting at the library on Wednesday night, April 2nd, were unanimously desirous of drawing to the attention of the people of Stirling and district yet another public service performed by the late Mrs. G. W. Bailey, one of the Board's most valued members.

Mrs. Bailey was appointed to the Board in 1944, filling the opening caused by the death of Mrs. J. C. Potts. She became president of the Board in 1944, a position she filled for 14 years, with dedication and efficiency. During her tenure of office, many improvements were directly attributed to her effort and forethought.

In the years since, she had served either on the Property Committee or the Book Committee, with an interest and thoroughness typical of any enterprise to which she lent her considerable talent. The flag pole, which stands beside the entrance to the library, was a project dear to Kay Bailey's heart, and probably would not have been erected without her staunch perseverance.

The Spring Art Shows, which were begun in 1965, were supported by her, both in the use of time taken from her busy life, and in the contribution of many oil paintings which evidenced much talent. Her pupils were appreciative of her paintings which she shared with them in her home room in the local high school.

The Hastings County effort to start a County Library System which could so greatly enrich the district, was favoured by her enterprise on a preliminary committee formed to try to interest the County Council in such a County system. When this County system comes into being, it will be in part because of the groundwork laid by people such as Mrs. Bailey.

The recent renovations and improvements which have made the library physically second to none in the small towns in the outlying districts were in no small part due to Kay Bailey's interest in the importance of an excellent library in the field of education. Both she and Mr. Bailey helped to handle the thousands of books that had to be moved at the time of the recent redecoration, perhaps at the expense of her health. But this was the kind of Board member that she was and is one of the reasons we shall find her hard to replace.

Three years ago, Kay Bailey started one of the projects that will live on in the library, when largely by her efforts, a memorial picture was placed in the library to honour the more than sixty years of service rendered by Mrs. H. H. Alker, of Stirling, who saw the need of a library in Stirling and did something about it. Mrs. Bailey interviewed Mrs. Alker and recorded on tape the history of the Stirling Public Library from the time it was housed in an upstairs room on Mill Street, through the years of receiving a Carnegie grant with which the present building was erected, the transition from coal stove to oil furnace and on to the excellent building it now is. Miss Linda Ellacott, a former pupil of Mrs. Bailey, has graciously consented to type an account of the history as taken from tape, and a photostat copy of the history will be available to borrowers in the early summer.

Another contribution to a permanent record of village history is a detailed history of the older homes of Stirling, compiled by Kay Bailey in 1968. A great deal of her total summer vacation was used in gathering data from the Dominion Archives, from County Registry Office records and from older residents. A picture of every house of historical value is included in the record. This architectural history is now hard-bound and available for limited loan from the reference section. It is a real regret of the Stirling Library Board that a week before the onset of her final illness, Mrs. Bailey had been

THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH

Last Thursday, Senior Citizens were honoured by a visit from one who, some years ago, was known on our streets as Helen Sarges; now Mrs. Tofan, of Whitby. Helen has not lost any of her very pleasing personality she displayed here as a girl.

Gertrude Belshaw, Sally Ward and Fred Heasman were responsible for the nice lunch served.

We are sorry to report that Pres. Fred is in Belleville Hospital and we wish for him a speedy return to good health. Past Pres. George acted as chairman for the day and shot his usual line.

At one time "The Blacksmith" was one of Stirling's greatest industries. They say there was one in front of Cecil Macklin's home, but Dis Ole Scribe can't recall it. Bob Jones operated one where Mrs. Bedford now lives. Sylvanus Wright and Dave Burkitt had one where Jim's Garage is now. Chas. Higgs and Bob Cosbey followed one another where the Stirling Creamery is now located. Kippie Montgomery owned the building and also ran a woodworking shop there. Where Allan Wells now lives, a fellow by the name of Joyce had one, and across from Mouck's Hardware Store was a small one and Collins was the blacksmith. Ah, Girdwood operated one where Clifford Sine lives now and Willie Fitchett's father was a blacksmith but worked in Tweed.

Whoops, I overlooked two shops — Bob Williams, and earlier Kerr's, where Ray's Farm Machinery is located.

One guy had a dog he called "Blacksmith", because every time he kicked him in the rear, he made a bolt for the door.

Dis Ole Scribe

persuaded to inscribe her autograph and a short introduction in this book, but had not yet found time to do so. This book will be treasured greatly by all interested in local history and is even now being used by a group of grade eleven students to assist them in a local history project. Nothing would please Kay Bailey more than that by her efforts a student would have a source of information to further his education.

A woman, a teacher, a board member of this calibre can really never be properly honoured; for the intangibles that render meaningful the public service of dedicated people bear fruit for many years in those they serve.

The Stirling Public Library Board has asked Mr. G. W. Bailey for one of his wife's oil paintings to place in the library. On it will be placed a plaque indicating the years of her service on the Board. The individual board members have requested the honour of contributing to the Kay Bailey Award Fund as a gesture of gratitude for the privilege of knowing and working with this very dedicated woman, Kay Bailey.

April is Cancer Month; Campaign Now On in Stirling and District

April is Cancer Month. Starting April 1st, the Stirling and District Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society and its sister units across the country will be knocking on every door to ask citizens' financial support to fight this killer. The campaign will go on all month.

The Stakes

Are Life

The stakes are big. Life or death. And the fight goes on, desperately. Five hundred top-ranking Canadian research scientists and technicians, working in 16 universities and research centres are searching for ways to discover exactly what happens to cause cancer and how to cure it.

Cancer strikes in many ways — a tumor in the brain, leukemia (cancer of the blood), a tumor in the colon, stomach, lungs, the eyes, the cervix or other parts of the human body. It takes a lot of money to combat this killer.

One of the main objectives of the Society is the education of the public about cancer. This is achieved partly during the door to door canvass when life saving information is left with the public.

Give generously when the volunteer canvasser calls.

Change of Date

The dedication of the new piano at St. Paul's United Church will now be held on Sunday, May 4th.

The Great Horned Owl

These large birds have the amazing habit of nesting in Winter and early Spring. Occasionally one finds a female covered in snow incubating her 2-3 thick shelled eggs. The male bird is responsible for serving breakfast of rats, mice and rabbits, but occasionally porcupines, bats, crows, snakes, fish and even crayfish are caught and eaten.

Owls are faithful birds. Once a mate is chosen they stay together for life. The charming couple roost together in the freezing forest snapping their bills together, hissing and showing their mutual affection.

The great Horned Owl does not construct nests, but makes use of abandoned squirrel nests or most likely the nests of hawks, especially the red-tailed hawk.

These owls are non-migratory and even when the young leave the parental nest they move but a few miles away. This reluctance to migrate is a factor for keeping the population in check. When food becomes scarce, especially in the North, many of the owls starve to death. This may appear to be a rather harsh method of control but it is the nature of things.

Studded Snow Tire Deadline April 30th

There has been considerable confusion regarding the legal deadline for removal of studded snow tires in Ontario. The proper answer is April 30th. Even usual reliable sources of information have erred on this question and thus added to the motorist's confusion. Studded snow tires (but not front wheels only) are permitted in Ontario from October 1st to April 30th.

— TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO —
ISSUE APRIL 7, 1944

Burton Sharp, Secretary-Treasurer Rawdon Junior Farmers, and Allan Finkle, Past President Sidney Junior Farmers, were delegates to a meeting of the Junior Farmers' Association of Ontario, held in the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Tuesday of this week.

The four-year-old Village of Batavia will add another public building to its fast-growing community building programme with the announcement that a United Church will be built within the next few weeks in a central part of the Village. The erection and dedication of a Roman Catholic Church was completed early last Fall.

It is little more than four years ago that the first sod was turned for the building of the big livestock plant that has since been operating day and night on war production. Since that time, two hundred modern dwelling places have been erected.

Mount Pleasant Messengers

The Messenger Group held their Easter Meeting at the church hall on Saturday evening March 29th. The leader Mrs. Raymond McConnell and her assistants Mrs. Garth Joslin and Mrs. Stanley Williams were in charge of the arrangements. Approximately seventy-five ladies, girls and boys were in attendance.

The president, Kenneth Sharp presided over the programme. Jill McAdam was pianist and Donnie Hubel secretary. The meeting opened with an Easter hymn and the president welcomed the ladies.

Selections were read by Kathy Sharpe, Brian Hubel, David Jeffs and Hilda Talsma.

Piano selections were played by Margaret Hoard and Suzette Morgan. A vocal solo was given by Gregg Joslin. Linda and Heather Hoard contributed a vocal duet.

Garry Couch gave accordion music. The offering was gathered by Heather Hoard and Gail Merrick. Linda and Margaret Hoard rendered a piano duet.

Donnie and Ivan Hubel conducted several games and the ladies were in charge of an Easter Egg hunt. The older children served a bountiful lunch and then all the Messengers were given special treats.

Principals Form County Association

The Hastings County Principals' Association was recently formed, with the following slate of officers: President, Mr. Ken Gillies, Principal, Marmora Intermediate School; 1st Vice President, Mr. Bert Frink, Principal, Queen Elizabeth School, Belleville; 2nd Vice President, Mr. Murray Workman, Vice Principal, Queen Victoria School, Belleville; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Gary Stevenson, Principal, Bancroft Public School.

Following the formation of the Association, a constitution was accepted containing the following specific aims:

1. To work towards the improvement of education.
2. To work conjointly with the Hastings County Board of Education and its duly authorized officials to formulate and implement educational policy.
3. To promote good public relations.
4. To endeavour to improve our professional status.

An invitation has been extended to the more than eighty principals and vice-principals currently employed in Hastings County to become active members. The enthusiastic response indicates a developing awareness of the importance of efficient communication in this large County Unit. The meetings are held regularly on the 4th Wednesday of each school month. All meetings to date have been held at the Madoc Public School, where a variety of topics have been discussed. The highlight of the meetings occurred on Feb. 26th, when the Director of Education for Hastings County, Mr. Eric Runnacles, addressed the group and revealed his approach to education and his expectation of the principal in the school and community.

Summer Course In French New Offering At Trent

An intensive six-week, non-credit course in French will be offered at Trent University this summer.

The course will enable students to improve their working knowledge of French, both spoken and written to the university level, H. G. Hooke.

MR. V. PRINDLE, Proprietor

Director of Part-Time Studies, said today.

It will be held concurrent with the University's second summer session, from June 30 to August 12.

The course will consist of 12 hours a week of instruction and practice in written and oral French, including four hours in the language laboratory. Provision will also be made, said Mr. Hooke, for additional laboratory and conversational work.

Extra-curricular activities are to be arranged to provide informal French conversation and contact with the language, through the use of "French tables" in the dining hall and a French "house" in the residence, through films, and social activities.

The course would be open to any person wishing to improve their knowledge of French to the university level. The normal admission requirement would be Grade 12 standing in French. Mr. Hooke said. Candidates who show comparable knowledge of the language will be accepted following an interview with the instructors in the course.

The University, Mr. Hooke said, will consider satisfactory performance in this course as fulfilling the requirements for admission to first year French at Trent. Students wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity may be required to write an examination and undertake special assignments.

GENESIS

There's a new type of creature emerging on earth

I'll describe him to you for what ever it's worth

He comes out of hiding in winter, I'm told

He rejoices in weather that's terribly cold

He leaves the warm fireside, his wife and his kids

Climbs onto a motor, a belt and two skids.

The machine comes to life, he is forthcoming.

But he can't cause as yet there is no sign of snow.

For the past eighteen days he's been wearing a suit

That is covered in zippers from parka to boot, And mittens, and helmet and mask on his head

"My God" says his wife, "must you wear that to bed?"

Then finally it happens, the ground has turned white He's on his machine and he roars out of sight

On the flat he'll crouch down on a corner he'll lean, And they tell me his blood is now pure gasoline.

Over hill, over river, through marsh and round trees, Over rock-pile and sand-pit, yet down on his knees!

He looks like he's praying as onward he flies Is it monster or man? All we see are its eyes.

He'll go charging ahead when its twenty below Screaming into a blizzard of onrushing snow

By what demon possessed is this new breed of man, Who finds joy in a snowstorm like no human can.

But what happens in summer when snows are not there, Is he out on the porch in an old rocking chair?

No, he's inside his house for the whole world to see

Sitting there on his snowmobile, watching T.V.

St. Paul's U.C.W.
General Meeting

The pleasure of meeting and visiting briefly with long time friends was enjoyed on Tuesday evening at the general meeting of St. Paul's United Church Women, when Mrs. X. P. Mayhew came along with her daughter, Linda, who came to tell of her trip to Crossroads Africa.

Mrs. Donald Williams presided and welcomed the 49 in attendance.

The theme of the devotional was "Road to Calvary", with Mrs. Wayne Martin, Mrs. Morris Rose, Miss Doris Sine and Mrs. Allan Wells.

Completing this most effective Easter devotional, Mrs. Robert Hulin and Mrs. Bert Jones sang "The Old Rugged Cross" with Mrs. Craig Watson at the piano.

Mrs. Basil St. Pierre introduced Miss Linda Mayhew, of Picton, to tell of her trip to Africa, with the idea of better communication between people.

As slides were shown of a number of African scenes, she told of their customs—they being most generous and understanding, although their language had little meaning, their personality told the story. A picture of most interest was Linda helping to build a small bridge, hammering stones down to a smaller size to make a foundation for the bridge, and working with five young men.

She and a girl friend occupied a house which was made of mud and screening and white washed for cleanliness. A little African boy became quite friendly and helped the girls out of their puzzling situations. Although they have cows in Africa, camel milk is preferred and Linda had on display a milk jug and a camel bell made of wood; also a butter bowl, long handled ladle, money in bills and coins and a monkey's tail made into a fly swatter.

In closing, Linda expressed her thanks to the United Churches for giving her this memorable trip and rich experience. Mrs. Ray Shortt presented Linda with a gift for which she expressed her thanks.

Mrs. Donald Williams took the chair for the business, opening with a poem followed by a memorial service for a valued member, Mrs. Gordon Bailey, who left this world on Friday. A minute's silence was observed, followed by a prayer of tribute.

The minutes were read by Mrs. William McMullen and the financial report was given by Mrs. Lulu Harlow.

Mrs. Harry Waite reported on cards sent out and read replies. Mrs. James Boughen reported 115 house calls and 30 hospital visits. Mrs. Morley Ayrhart read a letter from Street Haven Shelter, Toronto, and also stated another bale of clothing is about ready.

Mrs. Martin reported on the clothing wardrobe and stated clothing in size 20 for ladies is required. She also reported that the H.C.'s had given seventy dollars toward the cause for the needy in a benevolent fund.

The U.C.W., too, has started a benevolent fund, by placing twenty-five dollars in its account.

Thanks were expressed by Mrs. Jack Bush on behalf of the choir for the U.C.W. tendering the Junior Choir a party during their Easter holidays. Mrs. Bush also announced the Conference in June which will be held in Kingston. This year, Anglicans will join in the Conference. A Leaders' Training School will again be held at Albert College. Mrs. Williams asked for thought to be given to these announcements. Counsellors and leaders for summer camps are urgently needed.

The meeting closed with hymn singing, after which lunch was served by Carmel Unit. Thanks to all who had contributed to the evening was expressed by Mrs. J. L. Good.

Rylstone W.I. Annual Meeting

Rylstone Women's Institute had an attendance of ten ladies for their April meeting in the Institute Hall, on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. L. Anderson, President, was in charge of the opening exercises, including the Institute Ode and Creed. As it was the annual meeting, the roll call was answered by the paying of fees for 1965-70.

Mrs. Murray Meiklejohn, Secretary-Treasurer, gave a financial report of the last two months, including the Games Nights.

Mrs. Ernest Irwin and Mrs. Ellis Jones were chosen as delegates to the North Hastings District Annual Meeting to be held at Cooper on May 7th. Rylstone W.I. will hold their regular May meeting on May 1st.

It was decided to raise the fee for rental of the Hall, as the present amounts are hardly enough to defray expenses. The Hall is now much better equipped than it was a year ago when it opened.

Annual reports were given by the Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Murray Meiklejohn and the Convenors of Standing Committees.

Mrs. Anderson then declared all offices vacant and thanked all the members for their help and co-operation during a very busy and trying year.

Mrs. Eldon Anderson, chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the slate of officers, and the election resulted as follows:

President — Mrs. E. Lindsay Anderson. (To be assisted by other members as "Chairman of the Month")

Vice-Presidents—Mrs. Ernie Rowe, Mrs. Ernest Irwin and Mrs. Jack Watson

Secretary-Treasurer — Mrs. Murray Meiklejohn

Assistant Secretary-Treasurer — Mrs. Ellis Jones

District Director — Mrs. Eldon Anderson

Alternate — Mrs. E. L. Anderson
Branch Directors — Mrs. Chas. Stewart, Mrs. Stanley Kerr and Mrs. Jack Watson

Press Reporter — Mrs. Ellis Jones

Pianist — Mrs. Percy Reid

Assistant — Mrs. Maurice Brunton

Smashins Committee — Mrs. Carl Reid, Mrs. Percy Reid and Mrs. Gerald Pezherick

Auditor — Mrs. Carl Linn

Arrangements were made, after the meeting, to have repairs made to the roof of the Hall.

Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Ellis Jones, assisted by Mrs. Don Stewart

Notes the change in date of the May meeting, Thursday, May 1st. Hostess, Mrs. Frank Osborne; Programme Committee, Mrs. Ernest Rowe and Mrs. E. L. Anderson; Lunch Committee, Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Percy Reid; Roll call, Plant and bulb exchange.

Distinguished Lawyer And Educator Speaks To University Women's Club at Belleville

The University Women's Club and guests met Thursday to hear H. Allan Leal, Chairman of the Ontario Law Reforms Commission, speak on Property Law. Guests included husbands of members, the Business and Professional Women's Club, and the Children's Aid Society.

Mr. Leal was introduced by Mrs. Betsy Boyce.

Mr. Leal spoke on the history of property law as between husband and wife, going back to the source of our law, tracing it thro' its paths of development in Commonwealth countries to concentrate finally on the reforms proposed by the Ontario Law Reforms Commission.

Although English Property Law was similar to that of the continent following the Normand Conquest, England had, by the late nineteenth century departed from it by passing the "Married Women's Property Act". This act enabled a married woman to own and manage her own property; whereas, in France, no separation of property is allowed for the duration of the marriage.

The feeling now, Mr. Leal pointed out, is that we could improve our laws by merging the two to get the best of both community and separate property laws. With this in mind, the Law Reform Commission proposes to leave husband and wife free to handle their own property during marriage, but to allow a division of both estates equally upon divorce or annulment, but to allow one to apply for a division should the other attempt to dissipate the estate or seek to sell or mortgage the matrimonial home. It is recommended, too, that in the case of no will, all children acknowledged share equally in inheritance.

Mass Produced Homes A Possibility

Canada may soon have houses mass-produced, reports Electrical Contractor and Maintenance Supervisor magazine, if attempts to create national standards allowing assembly-line inspection of factory-built homes are successful.

A committee is being formed under the Canadian Standards Association to establish national standards so that manufactured homes (houses made in factories and shipped to sites for erection) can be approved on the assembly line rather than after delivery or job completion.

The existing maze of municipal building codes complicates on-site inspection and slows production. National manufacturing standards for housebuilding would result in faster and greater production and slower price inflation because of economies of scale brought about by greater uniformity of components and techniques. The effects could ease Canada's housing shortage.

'Tis better to give than deceive — especially when making out your income tax.

If you want to buy a British 434 diesel tractor

no need to order through your farm organization

The Royal Commission released a statement showing the price of a 434D tractor in Canada as $791 higher than in the U.K. After deducting ocean freight, this difference amounts to $650.

You don't need to order through a farm organization to make this "saving" or discount.

First see your IH dealer

He'll be glad to deal with you on exactly the same terms and conditions as your farm organization:

1. Make a cash deposit with your order.
2. Pay the full balance in cash on delivery.
3. No used equipment accepted in trade.
4. The tractor may be slightly used or demonstrated.
5. Waive any rights to warranty or after-delivery service.

See any participating IH dealer. There is this advantage—he'll be available for years to come to supply first rate parts and service.

This offer expires May 31, 1969

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER

If you need a larger tractor

Don't be misled by recent statements that tractor prices in general are higher in Canada than in the country of manufacture. This is not true of International tractors.

A recent Royal Commission report indicates —

Canadian retail price for the 706 tractor as $105 less than U.S. price

Canadian retail price for the 806 tractor as $126 less than U.S. price

International tractors manufactured in the U.S. have comparable retail prices on both sides of the border.

The 624 tractor manufactured in West Germany has a lower retail price in Canada than in Germany.

We feel we should set the record straight. The relationship between our customers, our dealers, and ourselves is very important to us.

For the best in service and value see your IH dealer—a man in your community on whom you can depend.

More Businesses Fail

Higher operating costs were the major reason for the upsurge in the failure rate of retail businesses in Canada last year, The Financial Post reports. Store rentals, delivery costs, wages and taxes have all been increased—fatally for some businesses. Figures for 1968, just released by Dun & Bradstreet, show that total liabilities for business failures last year dropped to $130 million from $215.6 million for all of 1967. In other words The Financial Post says, although the number of business failures increased in 1968, liabilities declined.

"SPRING HAS SPRUNG"

The last few days have rekindled life in many of nature's wonders. Many of our song birds have returned in search of a suitable nesting site in which to raise their young. The warm sun and spring rains have brought forth the green grasses and plants and even the tulips have a very good start.

The snakes have begun to emerge from their winter sleeping places beneath the rocks and earth.

Any day now one of nature's most amazing cycles will begin as different species of game fish will battle their way up raging streams to reach their spawning grounds, where the female fish lays many thousands of eggs and male fish will then fertilize them.

If these determined fish had only the raging streams and rapids to contend with everything would be quite a simple matter.

However, each spring there are always several fish hungry guys who can't wait for the season to open, but they stalk the streams and riversides and lakeshores armed with long-handled spears, shotguns and rifles, etc. in search of the defenceless spawning game fish. Usually the number of fish taken is staggering. In this area, the main target seems to be the Pike.

Being an avid conservationist, I feel that this is a very unsportsmanlike method of taking a game fish, and I am sure that any true sportsman would frown upon it.

Perhaps it is the thrill of the risk involved as the spearmen try to elude the conservation officers for they know if they are caught or subdued, the price to pay is very high.

Spawning is a natural process and its only purpose is to replenish the waters so the population of fish will not become totally depleted.

Since it takes a male pickerel two full years to reach maturity and the female pickerel three years before she can spawn, a couple of years of heavy spearing or shooting could cause a serious depletion problem.

So for conservation's sake and the sake of our future fishermen, be they children or grandchildren, be a true sportsman and stick to a rod and reel.

River Valley W.I. Annual Meeting

On Thursday, April 3rd, the Annual Meeting of River Valley Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Carr, with sixteen members in attendance. There were five pre-school children and one visitor who later became a new member.

All enjoyed a dessert luncheon at 1.30 p.m., provided by Mrs. Ross Bush, Mrs. Roy Tucker, Mrs. Harry Morrow, Mrs. Norman Rosebush and the hostess. The table was decorated with floral tablecloths.

First Vice-President, Mrs. Roy Tucker, chaired the meeting and opened with the Institute Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. Mrs. Ernest Carr read the minutes and Mrs. J. L. Donohoe gave the financial report for the month. The correspondence included thank-you notes.

The chairlady voiced thanks to all who had assisted with the 12 card parties and the pot luck supper.

For Public Relations, Mrs. Percy MacMullen said all reports should be sent promptly to the District Conventions.

For Friendship links, Mrs. MacMullen read a portion of the annual printed report of Abbot's Leigh W.I. in Bristol, England, and displayed their 1969 programme.

Mrs. Gerald Brooks outlined the 4-H Club project. The Achievement Day is Saturday, April 12th, at Moira Secondary School, Belleville. The public is welcome to attend in the afternoon.

The minutes of the 1968 annual meeting were read.

The Secretary, Mrs. Carr, in her report, said there were four Life Members and twenty-nine annual members in 1968 and one deceased Life member, Miss Flossie Rosebush. The average attendance was seventeen. Three members attended all meetings — Mrs. J. L. Donohoe, Mrs. Roy Tucker and Mrs. Percy MacMullen. Four members did not attend any meetings. Twenty-seven guests signed the guest book during the year. The Tweedsmuir Book was displayed and the District President entertained. There was a tour to a greenhouse at Campbellford and a travelogue on a trip to Europe. There also was swimming for the children and the 4-H Club was sponsored.

Mrs. Carr was given a vote of thanks for her six years as Secretary.

Mrs. J. L. Donohoe gave a full financial report. The total expenditures were over one thousand dollars for the year. The books were audited by Mrs. Alex Bush and Mrs. Jack Bush. The convenors reports were read.

ACQUAINT YOURSELF WITH TOWN PLANNING

This is one of a series of short articles prepared by your Planning Board for the purpose of acquainting residents of Stirling with Town Planning.

SUBDIVISION CONTROL

Land to be subdivided, or expected to be subdivided, should be covered by subdivision control. This is done by the local municipal council passing a by-law under The Planning Act. With certain exceptions, the subdivision of land will then take place by way of a registered plan of subdivision. The exceptions are set out in The Planning Act and, briefly, they are as follows:

- The grantor does not retain any land abutting the land being sold, mortgaged, etc.; or
- The land is being acquired or disposed of by the Federal Government, the Provincial Government, or by a municipality or county; or

(c) The consent of the committee of adjustment or of the Minister is obtained.

(d) Certain pipe-line rights of way. An area of subdivision control designated by a by-law passed under the Planning Act cannot be dissolved or altered without the Minister's approval.

"DEEMING"

In some areas there may be old registered plans of subdivision in existence that would not meet the higher standards imposed today. If such a plan has been registered for eight years or more, the council may deem it not to be a registered plan for the purposes of The Planning Act. This means that a new plan of subdivision must be registered if any part of the land is to be subdivided - subject to the exceptions listed above.

PART-LOT CONTROL

Plans of subdivision intended for registration are not approved unless the area and dimensions of the individual lots meet the requirements of the municipality's by-laws or otherwise conform to accepted standards. However, substandard parcels may result if the subdivider sells only parts of the lots laid out on the plan. To guard against this, provision has been made for local municipal councils to impose part-lot control on the land contained within registered plans and, again with certain exceptions, no person shall convey a part of any lot or block of land in the area covered. The exceptions to this provision are set out in The Planning Act and are similar to those set out in the paragraph above headed "Subdivision Control".

HASTI-AGRI-GRAM THE FARM NEWS LETTER OF HASTINGS COUNTY

A MATTER OF CHOICE

— W. D. Tipper

Now that dairy farmers have heard the announcement on the National Dairy Policy for the current year, the second important point that is in the mind of the can milk shipper is the question of bulk. By bulk, I mean, whether or not to go into a bulk tank operation. The decision revolves around the problem of whether the individual is big enough in terms of milk produced to warrant the expenditure. Some of the facts that influence the whole situation and must be taken into consideration include the following: stepped-up quality programs, demands for more on-the-farm improved cooling of milk, the establishment of proper milk houses and, of course, last but not least, transportation with all the questions of economics and flexibility that must be considered.

On top of this, the individual farmer has to decide on a future program. First of all, he has to consider his present age and how long he would expect to be in the milk production business; secondly, he has to consider whether he will tackle it on an expansion basis, increasing his volume and also consider whether he has the labour requirements necessary to carry it. The third distinct choice is now appearing on the scene with the changing pattern that is presently appearing in the milk industry. This changing pattern is bringing about enlargement of herds and with this, requirements for bigger bulk milk tanks. As a result, the smaller bulk tanks are becoming available and according to recent reports, at a pretty nominal price. As a matter of fact, some small bulk milk tanks are available in a price range competitive to secondhand can coolers. Taking these points into consideration, the smaller operator who evaluates his situation and decides that he is not going to be in any significant expansion program can, for a reasonable sum of money, get into a bulk operation that can be justified in his farm business.

There is no requirement for bulk milk tanks by any central body but economics and management in the whole milk industry tend to develop this trend and it is coming faster than a lot of people think. As a result of this, right now is the time for the smaller dairy farmer to take a look at the situation and decide what he intends to do in the future and make plans accordingly. It is not as impossible as some people think and the Capital Grants Program can be applied on the construction of the milk house which will ease the situation in a considerable amount. Information on milk house construction, help with the selection of the site, and details on the Capital Grants Program can be obtained from the Stirling office of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food.

TRIMESTER AGRICULTURAL PROGRAM AT K.C.A.T.

—Ray B. Pender

The first summer semester in agriculture to be offered at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology will begin May 5th and end August 1, it was announced by Dr. F. A. Stinson, Principal of the College.

In announcing this new departure, Dr. Stinson noted that much greater use can be made of College facilities by moving to the trimester program.

The College farm will provide excellent opportunity for crop production studies and management decisions where soils and farm equipment are involved during the growing season. The new trimester program will run concurrently with the home economics semesters successfully started a year ago.

Students can begin studies in May, September or January. It will now be possible to complete diploma requirements in agriculture in four successive semesters, or to take longer if the student requires more time.

Through a wide selection of elective courses, students will have a much greater flexibility in choice of subjects. This choice of subjects can be extended to persons who may wish to take one or more courses without acquiring a diploma in agriculture.

Where do I apply?
Further enquiries, application forms and calendars with complete information regarding courses can be obtained from:

This sage bit of verse comes from the Farmers' Almanac, 1968.

I dreamed death came the other night
And Heaven's gate swung wide;
With kindly grace an angel
Ushered me inside.

And there to my astonishment
Stood folks I'd known on earth
— Some I'd judged and labeled as Unfit or Little Worth.

Indignant words rose to my lips,
But never were set free;
For every face showed stunned surprise;
No one expected me!

Legion Notes

MEMBERSHIP AND VIMY NIGHT

Some forty members and guests enjoyed a bountiful dinner and social evening when the Stirling Legion held their Annual Membership and Vimy Night.

President W. deJong, Chairman for the occasion, was supported by Zone Commander E. Brant and his Deputy, Cde. Bert Bastardo.

Following the march on of the colours, the opening ceremonies of dedication and remembrance, and the toast to the Queen, Grace was said by Branch Chaplain Cde. J. F. McGarvey, and the dinner was on.

The centre table was reserved for World War veterans, who were honoured by this and other special attention from their younger comrades.

President deJong welcomed the gathering, introduced the guests and urged all members to be active in the current drive.

Zone Commander Brant, in keeping with the first theme of the evening, dealt with some eye-opening figures concerning Canadian participation in the wars of the past 70 years, and present membership in the Royal Canadian Legion. The thought was expressed that there were many veterans of undecorated wars, for example, Korea, who were not sure that they were eligible for membership. There were also many others who only needed a personal, friendly welcome to become good members.

President deJong spoke of the fine work of Membership Chairman Cde. H. Wall and called on him for a report. Mentioning a paid up total of $9 — an all-time record for April, he stressed the inevitable falling off of the number of World War I veterans as active members, and called for a total branch effort to enlist the veterans of World War II and other conflicts, who are not yet active supporters of the Legion's many activities. He also informed the meeting that any member of the Canadian Armed Forces with a minimum of 2 years' service is now eligible for membership.

Following a break, the seating was rearranged and a film, "Fields on Sacrifice", was shown, pointing out the second theme of the battle of Vimy Ridge, one of the greatest and most successful battles fought by Canadians of the First World War. This splendid film, depicting the present peace and beauty of war cemeteries against the scenes of relevant battle actions in the various theatres of war, was deeply felt by the assembled comrades. Cde. Blake Faulkner officiated.

Arthur Duncan completed the programme with some well chosen poems and paid tribute to the fallen in his closing remarks. Arthur, who lost a brother in the First Great War, is an Honorary Member of the Stirling Branch.

The closing ceremonies completed a very successful evening.

GRANDMA CRAMMED TOO

We can live without art; we can live without books, but Senior Citizens cannot live without cooks. Past Pres. George thanked Miss Gladys Margaret and Jessie for a nice lunch. He was pinching for Pres. Fred and after he shot the cow's brother a while, he also thanked Bob Hulin for the nice chrome coat rack he donated for our use. He thought it was also kind of Moon Woodbeck to cart it over to the Hall for us.

Do you know who used to live where you live now? Grant Montgomery may be surprised to learn that his lot and north of it was once a hop yard. Later it was the site of a carriage shop, owned by Mr. Wheeler, who lived where Fred McDonnell lives now.

Myrtle Kirkey might like to know that Mrs. Rupert manufactured corsets where she now lives.

About where Orrie Seelye works, there was an old Mrs. Wheeler who made homemade bread for sale. It is rumoured that she did a bit of boot-legging, too. She made homemade coffee about the size of a Sweet Marie bar and sold it for a cent. There's nothing to equal it today — not even for a dime.

Today, students cram for their finals. In Grandma's time, she read her Bible a lot for the same reason. Let's be serious — Our finals are coming up, too. Don't you think we ought to be doing a bit of cramming like Grandma did?

Attend Art Festival

Several citizens from the Stirling area attended the Arts Festival at Hotel Quinte last week at which paintings by Belleville area artists were exhibited.

The pictures were judged by artist Fred Schonberger, of Queen's University, and were required to meet the same standards used throughout the Province in larger centres.

Both pictures submitted by Mr. and Mrs. Don McIntosh were accepted — one being a colourful string geometric and the other a welded metal construction in black and white.

Fire Dept. Fights Grass Fires

Stirling Volunteer Fire Department responded to two calls on Monday afternoon, within ten minutes, to extinguish grass fires in the Village.

The first alarm was for a grass fire out of control east of Baker Street, and the second was for a grass fire behind the Junior Public School. No property damage resulted in either blaze.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week the Stirling Fire Department answered a Mutual Aid call to Rawdon Township to extinguish a grass fire out of control on the farm of Ernest Thain, west of Wellman's Corners. The Rawdon Twp. Fire Department was fighting the fire at Bob Hoard's machine shed at the time.

Oak Hills Farmer First To Seed Land

Spring cultivation is a full week behind last year and as much as a month later than the earliest sowing recalled by a long time Oak Hills area farmer.

David Hollinger, R.R. 4, Stirling, last week sowed his first oat field and recalls it is exactly eight days later than last year.

"I sowed my first oats on April Fool's Day last year," he said.

The earliest sowing record as far as the Oak Hills farmer is concerned was on March 10 about eight years ago.

Traditionally Mr. Hollinger is the first farmer of the area to commence spring cultivation and has seen as much as two feet of snow fall after sowing his first field.

"But I've never had a crop failure,"
he says.

One big reason for this, he feels,
is that every two years he buys new registered seed.

This year he is again sowing early variety Garry oats with which he has had good success for many years.

Mrs. Ralph Heath, Rylstone, was hostess for a birthday party in honour of her aunt, Mrs. Fred Elliott, of Stirling, who was celebrating her eightieth birthday on Wednesday, April 1st. Mrs. Heath was assisted by Mrs. Elliott's daughters-in-law and nieces.

There were about forty guests in attendance from Belleville, Stirling, Campbellford, Hastings, Wooler and Rylstone.

A lovely birthday cake graced the dining room table and Mrs. Elliott occupied a nicely decorated seat of honour in the living room. Gerald Fitchett, a nephew, read an address of good wishes, to which Mr. Elliott made a nicely-worded speech of thanks on behalf of his wife.

Among the lovely gifts presented to "Aunt Blanche" were a money-bouquet, a housecoat and sweater and other lovely things, for which Mrs. Elliott thanked the donors.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by several cousins and other relatives of the guest of honour.

Mrs. Elliott was born at Rylstone, on the farm now occupied by her brother, Richie Meiklejohn, who was a guest at the party. Mrs. Elliott also lived at Rylstone for several years where she and her first husband, George Gibson, ran the General Store, after returning home from the West.

Mrs. Elliott has always been held in high esteem and affection by all her old friends and neighbours and her cheery disposition has endeared her to all who know her. All join in wishing her many more "Happy Birthdays."

O.P.P. REPORT

There were more than twice as many bicyclists killed in traffic accidents in Ontario during 1968 than in the previous year. 47 in 1968 compared with 22 in 1967. Reportable injuries were up also, from 1,530 in 1967 to 1,736 last year.

"We are taking a very serious view of this situation," Hon. Irwin Haskett, Ontario's Minister of Transport, said. "To navigate safely through today's traffic, young cyclists need to know the same rules of the road that car drivers are required to know. They must be skillful at handling their two-wheeled machines and know the importance of keeping their bikes in a safe dependable condition."

"I urge all parents to accept responsibility for making sure that their youngsters know and obey the rules of the road and that the bicycles their children ride are mechanically safe."

SAFETY TIPS

Here are some tips for safer cycling from the Transport Department:

1. Obey all traffic laws, signs and lights.
2. Signal turns and stops with the proper signals with the left arm out and up for a right turn out straight for a left turn out and down for a stop.

3. After signalling, return your left hand to the handle bar promptly and keep both hands on the handle bars.

4. Ride in single file, close to the curb.
5. At busy intersections, stop at the curb, get off your bike and walk it across. At stop lights, walk your bike across only on the green signal.
6. Walk your bike when you're on a sidewalk. Only very small children with sidewalk bikes may use the walks for riding.

7. Carry parcels in a carrier not in your hand.

8. A regulation bike is for one rider, no passengers allowed.

9. If you're riding after dark, or in poor visibility, your bike must have a white or amber front light, a red reflector or light on the rear, red reflective material at least 10 inches long and 1 inch wide on the back fender, and white reflective material at least 10 inches long and 1 inch wide on the front forks.

During the week of March 30 to April 5, 1969 officers of the Madoc Detachment, Ontario Provincial Police investigated 7 motor vehicles all of property damage.

There were 33 charges laid and 9 warnings with 8 other charges under Federal and Provincial Statutes.

There were 4,320 miles of area patrolled during 420 working hours.

37 hours were spent in Magistrates Court, Madoc with Judge R. C. Jackson registering 26 convictions.

In excess of $1500.00 worth of property from the MAH theft at Madoc, Ontario has been recovered by Kaladar OPP and the investigation is continuing by Madoc O.P.P.

Important Lessons
In Fire Safety
Clean-Up

Fires in the United States and Canada in a single year cost an estimated 12,670 lives and some $1,950,000,000 in property losses. There are approximately 2,468,000 fires in the two countries annually.

These figures alone make it plain that once children are old enough to go to school they should be taught that fire can be dangerous and can break out at any time in homes, schools, stores, restaurants and other places they know.

Activities suggested here can help increase youngsters' awareness of the need for attention to fire prevention at all times.

Arts and Crafts

Design and make original posters with a Spring Clean-Up or general fire prevention theme. Make up new poster slogans.

Make litterbags for candy and gum wrappers, other paper. Use heavy paper bags or more durable material such as denim or burlap.

Make pottery ash trays, paying special attention to safety features—a shape which prevents cigarettes from rolling out, size large enough for several cigarette butts or a cigar or pipe, holding grooves slanting inward, a wide rim, deep sides.

Map and Chart-Making

Draw a floor plan of the school building and show location of exits, alarm boxes and fire extinguishers. Or have each student make a street map of the immediate vicinity of his home and show where the alarm boxes are situated. Or have each child draw a floor plan of his bedroom, indicating two possible ways out in case of fire and including location of furniture to show that no exit is blocked.

Make a graph showing the relative frequency of each of six major causes of building fires in the U.S. and Canada in a single average year. Base the graph on these figures: Smoking, matches, 179,000; Electrical, 152,000; Heating, cooking equipment, 122,000; Flammable liquids, 62,000; Children and matches, 52,000; Lightning, 27,000.

Reading and Writing

Make a group scrapbook of newspaper and magazine clippings about fires and fire prevention, each child contributing at least three clippings. Call special attention to items in which children caused or were victims of fire.

Use clean-up or general fire prevention as the subject for an original essay, poem, slogan, skit.

After a class visit to a fire station or a talk at school by a fireman, write an article summarizing what was learned.

Quizzes

Use "Sparky's Home Fire Inspection Blank" or the "Home Fire Safety Check List," either of which a child and his parents can fill out at home and the student can then bring back to school. Also use the 10-question quiz in the folder "Clean Up for a Fire Safe Home."

Field Trips and Programmes

Visit a fire station to learn what the fire department does, to see how some real fire fighting apparatus is used, and perhaps to watch a tabletop demonstration on fire safety.

Show a film strip or motion picture on fire prevention. The fire department or public library may lend such films or can suggest where they might be borrowed.

School Clean-Up Activities

Each child can clean out the storage space in his school desk and make a list of the litter he himself has collected.

Divide a group into clean-up squads to help with storage areas such as cupboards, closets, lockers and bookshelves in the classroom.

If school authorities approve, assign older children to help pick up litter in the corridors, on the lawn, around the playground.

Arithmetic

Each child weighs the rubbish he gathers up in his room at home during Spring Clean-Up. If there is too much litter for kitchen-type scales, teach the child to weigh himself on ordinary bathroom scales while holding a bag of litter, and again without holding anything, and then to subtract to find the weight of the debris.

The number of watts plugged into an ordinary household extension cord should not exceed 600. Using this list as a guide, write down the number of watts plugged into each extension cord at home, then add up the total for each cord. When the total is 500 or more be sure parents learn of this specific danger point so they can make necessary changes to eliminate over-loading.

Figures on this list are approximate. For the exact wattage used by a specific appliance, look at the name plate on the appliance itself. To obtain figures for lamps, include the wattage printed on each light bulb.

Baby food warmer, 160; Clock, 2; Electric blanket, 190; Food mixer, 110; Hair dryer, 260; Heating pad, 60; Phonograph (stereo, console), 75; Radio, 75; Refrigerator-Freezer (14 cu. ft.), 290; TV (portable, black and white, 110; TV (Colour), 315; Toothbrush, 2.

It is important to note that this list does not include major appliances nor small appliances which produce intense heat. Ordinary extension cords should never be used with these appliances.

A housewife was trying to recapture the old flame in her marriage. She took her husband on a weekend second honeymoon type of thing with a dinner, show and some night clubbing. They returned to their hotel from their Saturday night celebrating, whereupon she had to "pour" her husband into bed. She wanted to find out how things were at home so she called the operator and gave her the number Parkview 0-0000. The husband upon hearing the phone number aroused from his stupor and growled, "Don't call that number, honey. That's my wife."

Rawdon Farmer Loses Barn, Tractor

A fire Wednesday afternoon in a large building on the line between Rawdon and Seymour townships resulted in an estimated $10,000 damage.

The blaze was reported at 3:15 p.m. and sent the Rawdon Volunteer Fire Department to the building owned by Robert C. Hoard who lives at the scene.

Firemen managed to save the residence and a nearby barn, but the shed and its contents were a total loss.

The large shed contained a new tractor, combine and corn planter. A supply of fertilizer to be used for this coming year's planting was also lost in the blaze.

Mr. Hoard and his family were in the sugar bush at the time of the fire and nearby neighbors turned in the alarm.

April Meeting Stirling W.I.

On Wednesday, April 2nd the Institute met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Bartlett for their annual meeting with 12 members and 3 visitors in attendance.

The President, Mrs. Clifford Clancy, opened the meeting in the usual way and welcomed the District President, Mrs. Gerald Irvine, Holloway, Mrs. Melvin Toffan, Whitby and Mrs. Grills, of town, to the session.

Roll call was answered by paying dues and offering homes for the meetings this year.

The Treasurer, Mrs. Wm. West, gave a full report of the year's funds, with a nice little sum to start the new year. Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Wannamaker had already audited the books and found them correct.

Mrs. West gave a reading entitled "Take Time" and Mrs. Wannamaker gave a reading "Never Again."

Mrs. Clancy asked the District President to take the chair and preside over the election and installation of officers for another year, which she very kindly did. Mrs. Clancy presented her with a small gift in appreciation.

Mrs. F. Smith gave her report on the District Director's meeting held in Belleville recently.

Mrs. W. West was elected as delegate to attend the District Annual meeting to be held at Centenary Church May the 13th.

We are looking forward to a visit again in the near future from Mrs. Irvine when she will again give us the talk she had prepared for this day but as the meeting was getting to long decided to give it another time.

Mrs. Clancy closed with the Queen and Mrs. Bartlett assisted by Miss L. Williams served a very lovely lunch.

Newspaper advertising brings the merchants "showcase" into your home.

Rylstone Friendly Neighbours

Mrs. Aaron Anderson was hostess to the Rylstone Friendly Neighbors Club on Wednesday afternoon, when there was an attendance of 11 ladies and 2 little girls.

Mrs. Clarence Thomson, president, was in charge of Devotions and opened with a meditation in "Grace," followed by an Easter hymn "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." Correspondence and other business was dispensed with and letters from Mrs. Walter Beecham, a Missionary in Korea, were read.

The Hymn "Jesus Christ is Risen Today," was sung and the Roll Call answered by a verse of the First Easter read from the Bible. 16th Chapter of Mark was read consecutively, followed by prayer by the president. A very interesting Bible Study period on the Book of "Judges" was conducted by Mrs. Bob Spencer with other members participating.

The programme was arranged by Mrs. Garth Joslin and Mrs. Walter Wrightman. The refreshments for the social hour were provided by Mrs. Douglas Pyear and Mrs. James Hagerman.

The worship centre was arranged with the Church Memorial Cross, Easter Lilies and the open Bible.

The President, Mrs. Burton Sharpe, opened the meeting with a short message and a welcome to all. Mrs. Mac Sharpe was pianist for the hymns.

Mrs. Harry MacAdam read the minutes and roll call.

The correspondence included two thank-you notes from Mrs. Frank Hutchinson and Miss Debbie David. The treasurer, Mrs. James Hoard, reported the March finances. A ten cent collection will be taken at the May meeting to purchase petunias. The members are asked to bring a friend.

The programme opened with a reading by Mrs. Ira David entitled, "Resurrection." Mrs. Kenneth Weaver conducted a sing song of hymns. Mrs. Percy MacMullen gave a reading, "The Little Easter Bonnet."

The devotional was based on "The Cross" and opened with a hymn. Mrs. Milton Shaw read the Bible lesson and Mrs. Garth Joslin read the meditation, "The Meaning of the Cross". Mrs. Will McAdam and daughter, Judith, sang "The Old Rugged Cross". Mrs. Robert H. Hoard read a poem, "The Lord Christ".

The minutes and correspondence were read by the Secretary, Mrs. K. Tompkins. Mrs. MacPherson reported on certificates for Cradle Roll. Mrs. Farney announced that the sizes were to be put on the clothing being sent to the used clothing depot at the United Church. A substantial amount of money is to be given to the Board of Managers of the Church; also a donation is to be made to the choir for the purchase of music.

It was decided to send bulletins once a month to each family of the congregation, concerning Church activities. Mrs. J. Johnston consented to prepare this material and forward it to Mr. Eugene Burrell, who has consented to print these bulletins.

Mrs. Roy Eggleton, Mrs. J. Johnston and Mrs. E. Fox reported on calls made.

The roll call, a Bible verse containing the word "Resurrection", was answered by twenty-three ladies.

Mrs. W. Rodgers reported on bales; what items were needed and where. Mrs. J. Johnston gathered the offering, which was dedicated by Mrs. Farney.

Mrs. Roy Eggleton, convener, conducted the remainder of the meeting. Mrs. Matthews was musician for the day. The hymn, "Jesus, Stand Among Us", was sung. Miss Gena Spry read the Scripture verses, Matthew 28:1-10, then gave an explanation of the Easter message. Mrs. E. Foster offered prayer.

Mrs. C. Tummon gave a paper on "Easter and the Resurrection". She began with the meaning of the word "resurrection", continued with a description of the Resurrection, and Jesus' body afterwards being that of a living Christ — one of flesh and blood. He appeared to so many afterwards, the same as before. Mrs. Tummon gave the proof of the Resurrection in the transformation of the Disciples and the origination of the Christian Church. Jesus' Resurrection is the crown glory, hope and assurance of mankind. Mrs. Tummon concluded this excellent topic with an appropriate verse.

Mrs. Hutchison read a Mission Story. Mrs. Earl Fox read a story, entitled "Her Resurrection". Mrs. Roy Eggleton gave a reading, "Housecleaning", as it applies to our lives. Mrs. K. Tompkins rendered a solo, "Low in the Grave He Lay". The hymn, "The Day of Resurrection" was sung, followed by the Mizpah Benediction. A delicious lunch was served by the committee.

Assessment Take-Over Criticized By Hastings County Warden

Objection to the proposed take-over of assessment by the provincial government is being continued at the county level by Hastings County Warden Donald Rodgers, of Stirling.

Speaking last week at the regular luncheon meeting of the Hastings Clerks' and Treasurers' Association, Warden Rodgers said that assessment and tax collection must be the foundation for any form of local government.

But he claimed the provincial take-over of assessment was being done without community acceptability and would further reduce the community participation which Municipal Affairs Minister Darcy McKeough had said he wanted.

And he said the provincial take-over of assessment would neither save money or increase efficiency. Costs would jump to $20 million from the $15 million and 600 more staff would be needed, he claimed.

He agreed with Mr. McKeough that assessment must be equitable across the province; that the local tax base must be broadened and that the business assessment rate and split mill rate as now imposed were unrealistic.

But revisions had been proposed by local people for some years, he said. He did not agree that the province could do it better or cheaper than the county or regional government commissions.

Warden Rodgers said that in a real sense, assessment is the root of increased educational costs to some municipalities this year.

As an example, he said, Belleville has a provincial factor of 84 for the consideration of school grants. This means that to obtain a 100 per cent valuation, local assessments have to be increased by approximately 55 1/2 per cent. Some county municipalities have a factor of 12 which means an increase of about 85 per cent.

Local officials were aware three years ago that this was going to affect these municipalities and this was why they were attempting to get the re-assessment program completed by late 1970 or 1971.

But without re-assessment at 100 per cent value, Warden Rodgers prophesied that the provincial take-over could cause more problems than under the present system.

"With the assessment take-over, they say the provincial factor is to be used for all local municipal levies. If you think some of these school costs are high, just wait until all the local levies are compounded thus," he said.

Warden Rodgers said that to some extent Hon. William Davis was right in forming larger boards of education.

Educational advantages would accrue but a mistake was made in underestimating the significance of the local grants being received by some boards and the variation in the provincial equalizing factor between cities and remote rural municipalities was not appreciated.

The three criteria now affecting the new boards of education were said to be inequalities in provincial assessment factors, (or in local assessment), consolidation of the provincial grants into one lump and increased enrolment.

"I say Hon. Darcy McKeough and Hon. Charles McNaughton (provincial treasurer) are just as wrong in what they are doing. In fact, they are repeating the same error and eventually will find most of the blame laid on their doorstep."

"They moved too quickly, without being properly aware of all local conditions, and too arbitrarily," said the Warden.

"It's beginning to appear that what Mr. McKeough means by community participation is, 'we'll do it, you pay' and by community acceptability, 'you'll accept it whether you like it or not.'"

Mr. Rodgers said that people must be prepared to fight for a stronger local government.

But local government must be responsible and be prepared to accept responsibility. And to be autonomous, it must have a more realistic tax base not dependent on the provincial government for more than 70 per cent of its income, he said.

IN DAYS OF YORE

President Fred returned to us from the hospital, all in one piece, and all Senior Citizens are happy to have him back. Even the men missed him. He thanked us all for favours and also Della Descent and Gertrude Belshaw for a nice lunch served.

Birthday greetings were sung to Margaret Ward, who had a birthday on April 22nd.

Do you know that Man is the lowest cost, non-linear computing system that is capable of being mass-produced by unskilled labour?

And did you also know that our Fire Hall used to be a foundry? Our first Town Hall was built of stone and was just east of John Ray's home. It burned and then the brick structure occupied by MacKenzie Feeds was used as a town hall. Earl Luery and Frank Sprentall ran picture shows there for some time and Gerry Clute played honky-tonk on the piano. At the rear in the basement, were the Council rooms and also two cells for cooling off the bad boys. Sometimes there was an overflow.

Speaking of boys — One day a school boy said to his teacher: "Sorry I'm late, sir, but there are eight in our family, and the alarm was only set for seven."

DAYLIGHT SAVING STARTS SUNDAY

Yes, readers, that time is here again!

Saturday midnight, April 26th, set that clock ahead one hour, lose an hour's sleep and roll the children out an hour early Sunday morning for Sunday School and Church services or else they and their parents will surely be late.

Monday morning the struggle will undoubtedly be very severe. Teachers will, no doubt, be confronted by sleepy pupils until around recess.

No matter how severe the results, Daylight Saving Time is here to stay until October 26th, so just remember everything is on D.S.T. for the next few months. Oh, well, we have to have time, so let's enjoy it even if we must get up an hour earlier to see the sunrise.

Three Act Comedy "Don't Darken My Door" A Decided Hit

A sparkling, entertaining, three-act comedy, "Don't Darken My Door", was presented by the H-C Group of Frankford United Church before a good crowd, held in Stirling Theatre, Friday night, under the auspices of the Cancer, Polio and Tuberculosis Committee of Stirling Oddfellows and Rebekah Lodges.

The play, which was packed with humor and unexpected developments, kept the interest of the audience at a high pitch. Much credit must go to Mr. John Fitchak, whose directing was reflected in the work of the performers.

Synopsis

The entire production takes place in the living room of Roger Kent's summer home.

Act One begins in the afternoon of a rather stormy day. The Kent household has settled in to a quiet summer vacation which comes to an abrupt end when an accident occurs outside the house.

Act Two takes place the same evening when a novelist's interference in family life becomes the centre of intrigue.

Act Three sees the clouds of trouble growing darker as a simple romantic scheme almost turns into murder in the dark on the evening of the next day.

Rawdon Hi-C Variety Night

On Wednesday evening, April 16th, Mount Pleasant Church Hall was filled to capacity with folk from Rawdon United Church circuit and guests from Burnbrae, Foxboro, Stirling and nearby points.

Lloyd Dunham, president of the Hi-C Group, gave a gracious welcome to all and voiced thanks to those who had assisted with time and talent to make a successful evening.

Rev. W. C. Cox was master of ceremonies for the variety program. Mrs. W. C. Cox conducted the singing, with Mrs. Gerald Clancy as piano accompanist. Brian Cosbey entertained with accordion music. Janice and Valerie Clancy gave two vocal duets. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lang contributed several musical selections with piano and violin. Four small children, Jennifer Joslin, Kenneth Hoard, Loretta Hoard and Rose Ann Hubel, sang a song. Beverly and Carolyn Lewis, Foxboro, contributed vocal and musical selections. Dawn and Denise Jackson gave a tap dance number. Judith McAdam sang, with her sister, Jill, as accompanist. Gerald Taylor and daughter, Beth, of Burnbrae, contributed piano music. Randal Scott gave a reading. Mrs. Jim Pollock and Mrs. Fred Beckett rendered two vocal selections. Bill McArton, of Stirling, contributed piano music.

At the close of the programme, the members of the Hi-C Group served sandwiches, pickles and a variety of pies.

Entered Into Rest

MRS. HENRY WALLACE

In ill health for the past four years, Mrs. Mary Margaret (Minnie) Wallace, R.R. 2 Stirling died in Toronto Hospital, Weston, on Tuesday in her 98th year.

Mrs. Wallace was born at Springbrook a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Webb. She resided near Stirling for the past six years but spent most of her life in the Ivanhoe district.

She was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at West Huntingdon and was past president and honorary life member of the Women's Missionary Society. She was also a member of the Women's Institute. Surviving are one son, John W.

Wallace at home, one daughter, Mrs. Roy (Hazel) Bejshaw, Belleville, five grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. A daughter, Mrs. Ernest (Nel) Chambers and her husband Henry Wallace are predeceased.

Mrs. Wallace rested at the Hogle Funeral Home, Stirling. Service was held in the chapel on Friday, April 18 at 1:30 p.m.

Interment was in West Huntingdon Cemetery with Rev. D. C. MacPherson officiating.

Pallbearers were Barton Haggerty, Gidde McInroy, Harry Benson, Edward Pollock, Sam Twiddy and John McInroy.

St. Paul's U.C.W. Unit Four

On Tuesday afternoon, April 15th, Mrs. W. West, hostess, welcomed the members arriving for their monthly meeting held in the church rooms.

The President, Mrs. G. Carlisle, also extended greetings and suitably opened the meeting, after which she dealt with the business for the month, which included reports of the secretary, Mrs. V. Richardson, and the financial report by Mrs. J. B. Hough. Church calls were also mentioned. A member was appointed to represent the Unit to act on the bazaar committee. Mrs. M. Aythart stated that the date for packing the bales of clothing for Home and Overseas Relief would be May 28th.

The Festival of Sacred Praise is to be held again in St. Paul's on May 10th and 11th.

Worship

This service was conducted by Mrs. E. Warren, Mrs. B. Bell and Mrs. G. H. Hogle, and was especially dedicated to the memory of Mrs. A. Packman, recently deceased. Mrs. Packman will be lovingly remembered for her outstanding service in leadership and general activities of the church and community.

The 74th Psalm was read in unison from the hymnary, followed by use of hymn 44, with Mrs. H. West as pianist.

Mrs. M. Bell read the Bible lesson from 2 Phillipians, 1-18. Comments on this passage were made by Mrs. Hogle. The theme was "Service". As Jesus took the form of service to others, we also are called to serve, not only in our daily encounters with those we meet, but that we also give of ourselves, our gifts and possessions and capacities to help in easing world-wide unrest, anxiety and hunger, that God's kingdom may be further established on this earth.

There followed prayer for leaders and teachers in the congregation, and men and women like ourselves, in homes and offices, that all may more zealously work for the Kingdom of God. Offering, gathered by Mrs. C. Fitchett and Mrs. E. Wood, was dedicated by Mrs. Warren, closing with the Benediction.

Study

Thoughts for study were prepared by Mrs. L. Pollock and presented by Mrs. G. Heasman, and this was also on our love and service in relationship to others, the key of this relationship being "Love". The New Testament has a lot to say about Love. One mark of a Christian is the respect in which he regards others. Love reconciles man and man and man and God. This question was left with us, "If some day we should waken to find no churches, no Bibles, no Christian literature, what would we do?" This forcibly reminded us of our great Christian heritage and our responsibility to pass this on to others.

Closing

Mrs. Carlisle thanked those who presented the programme and closed the meeting with a short poem entitled "While Passing By", reminding us of the little acts of love and service we daily have opportunities to render to those whose path cross ours. All joined in the Lord's Prayer.

Following the programme, afternoon tea was served by the April group and appreciation was expressed by Miss B. Hollinger.

THE BIBLE TODAY

Speaking at a Bible Society meeting, His Excellency Lij Endakachew Makonnen had this to say about the significance for Africa today of the Bible and its wide circulation among the people as well as the necessity for the Word of God to be read and to be received by the millions in the developing nations of that great continent:

"A great deal has been written about Christianity's role in Africa. But it seems to me that the influence of the Bible on the life and history of the continent has been much greater than students of Africa have been willing to concede. I do not know of any book or proclamation which has been more influential in shaping the development of Africa than has been the Holy Bible.

"Many of the people educated by the missionaries and missionary institutions, both at home and abroad, were the ones who assumed the role of leadership when the day of independence came. And look, if you like, into the history and background of the leadership of ex-colonial Africa today, and you will find that many of the leaders have had missionary education or background.

"The main question that arises today is: 'What is the role that the Bible can play in the rapid development of the African continent?'

"I would say that the fields of education is the one in which the greatest and the most effective contribution can be made. Education is the key to Africa's progress and, likewise, the key to its future. This is an age of competition for the mind and hearts of men, and wherever there is a vacuum in the minds of men or an emptiness in their hearts, there is always some idea or other which is ready to rush in with the aim of filling that vacuum.

"The challenge facing the Bible Society is to succeed in meeting the growing demands for the Bible as the principal instrument in education programs and literacy campaigns in the whole of the African continent. When you make available to young men and women in Africa the Holy Bible there is no gift more valuable,

Letter To The Editor

Stirling, Ont.

Dear Bob:

May I take this opportunity to express the thanks of the Cancer, Polio and Tuberculosis Committee and our very sincere appreciation for the support given to the Frankford H.C.'s presentation of "Don't Darken My Door", on Friday night, April 11th.

We are very grateful to the public for their support, to your newspaper for the capable assistance in advertising, to the Stirling H.C.'s and the merchants who helped in preparing and displaying posters, to all who helped in any way in the preparations, providing furniture, making the many arrangements connected with this undertaking. A special word of thanks to the Trent Valley Jamboree for the use of the P.A. system.

The cast is to be commended for the quality of their presentation. The many words of praise heard following the performance were most certainly well deserved.

This Committee of the Stirling Oddfellows and Rebekahs wish to assure your reading public that the funds raised will be used to alleviate distress here in this locality and express our gratitude for the support given.

Pat Merrill,

Chairman C.P. & T. Committee

Ivanhoe

(Miss B. Fleming)

MRS. HENRY WALLACE

It was with regret that old friends in Ivanhoe and vicinity learned of the passing of Mrs. Henry Wallace on April 15th, in Toronto Hospital, Weston.

Mrs. Wallace came to Ivanhoe in 1928. She took an active part in all community and Church activities.

She was a faithful member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, West Huntingdon. An honorary Life member of the W.M.S. she served as President in 1910-13 and previous to this she was President of the Ladies Aid. While serving in the highest office capably, no task was too lowly for her to perform. Truly it can be said of her: "She hath done what she could".

She was a charter member of Ivanhoe W.I. and also a Past President. She was a tireless Red Cross worker during World Wars I and II. Given to hospitality, no one in need was ever turned from her door.

Mrs. Wallace was a loyal wife, a loving mother, a true friend and a well-loved neighbour.

The sympathy of this community is extended to the Wallace family.

St. Andrew's W.M.S.

And Ladies' Aid

The regular monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid was held on Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Leslie Adams.

Mrs. Barton Haggerty, President, presided. The programme opened by singing "Rejoice, The Lord Is King". The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, followed by the roll call.

At this time, the president extended a warm welcome to members of St. Peter's W.M.S., Madoc, who were present on this occasion and who contributed to the programme.

Mrs. John Bailey presided and gave the call to worship. All joined in singing, "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today". Scripture from John 19 was read by Mrs. Deline, who also gave a meditation. Mrs. V. Tozer led in prayer. An Easter meditation was given by Mrs. Carl Wallace. Mrs. Harry Stone, Mrs. Grant Brett and Mrs. Warren Hill. The anthem, "Christ Arose" was presented by the West Huntingdon choir; a reading, "One Solitary Life, by Mrs. Warren Hill.

It was announced that the Missionary Conference is to be held in St. Peter's Presbyterian Church, Madoc, on April 24th, 25th and 26th.

"The Day of Resurrection" was sung and Mrs. Bailey led in prayer.

Life Membership Certificates were presented to Mrs. Russell Sills and Mrs. Don Thompson. An address was read by Mrs. Wm. Donnan, with Mrs. Barton Haggerty making the presentation. Following replies by the recipients, the programme closed with the Mizpah Benediction. Lunch was served.

Acquaint Yourself With Town Planning

The following article is printed with the permission of the "Community Planning Association of Canada" and was taken from a magazine published by this association and is entitled:

"I DON'T WANT A GAS STATION NEXT TO MY PROPERTY"

My neighbour is a nice enough guy. That's why what happened was such a surprise. Joe's corner lot has over 100 feet frontage on our street and goes back a couple of hundred or more on Clyde. All around us are nice homes, and we all like our community. At least I thought we did until one day last month when the surveyors came onto Joe's lot.

I had it figured, of course. I thought he was going to subdivide for his boy to build a house when he gets married next spring. I could hardly believe it when Joe told me about the gas station. "It's only a small independent one, just two pumps," he said. Now that there is more traffic on Clyde, he thought he could make a killing. None of the regular companies have a station within a half mile and there's no room for one, either.

STIRLING, ONT.

Well, I was mad. Thinking about the noise and the lights and the parking, I realized that there would be no more pleasure from our garden which we had worked so hard on. Who wants to sit under a tree next to a gas station?

After we talked it over, we decided to move into a quieter part of the neighbourhood, away from the traffic on Clyde. Then, I had my second shock. The agent said, of course, I couldn't expect to get as much as I had paid. After all, who wants to buy a house next to a gas station?

That's when I decided to go to City Hall. A friend at work told me about the city zoning by-law which would help me. When I saw the inspector he was polite and understanding, but useless. It turns out that there's no zoning on Clyde St. It seems that they can divide the city up on a map and pass a by-law which stops people from building so as to spoil what others now enjoy. If there was zoning, Joe could build a house but no gas station. When I asked why we weren't protected, the inspector said that some years before the residents had objected to zoning because they didn't understand it and the Council didn't want to lose votes by forcing an issue.

So here I am — stuck with a home which is hard to sell next to a third-rate gas station. It's not right, but it seems that it's too late to do anything. Our alderman is campaigning for town planning in our city. He says it would have prevented the kind of trouble I have. If he's right, why didn't they do something about it years ago? What is town planning anyway? Is there anything I can do?

New Fairground
Building Now
Bleeker Auditorium

The new Belleville fairground auditorium built to provide fair exhibition space, is to be named after a now deceased fair board official.

City council yesterday decided that the new building, to be used as show space during the fair and for recreational purposes, will be known as The Ben Bleeker Auditorium.

Mr. Bleeker was widely known throughout Hastings and the Quinte area for his interest in fall fairs and for many years served as director on the Belleville fair board and also on the Stirling fair board. He also served as secretary of the Belleville Fair for many years.

Mr. Bleeker was fatally injured some months ago in an auto accident at Foxboro.

New School Project Given Green Light

Construction of Harmony junior school got the immediate go-ahead following a meeting of Hastings county board of education Monday night.

"As a result of soil tests and investigation, we are satisfied the school fits in with the county plan," said board chairman James Clarke this morning.

Preparation of the site for construction ceased temporarily while the board investigated the suitability of the site and the plan of the school in relation to the educational needs of the entire county.

The new school, adjacent to the present Harmony school on the 5th of Thurlow road, is intended to accommodate junior pupils and special education classes.

Trustee Milford Waller of Thurlow asked for the board investigation Jan. 6. He questioned the suitability of the site on the grounds of possible future soil contamination from septic tanks.

He told the board a petition with 400 names was sent to Toronto 14 months ago suggesting the school be constructed on a site in Thurlow on the west side of the Moira River.

"As a result of our administrators report we decided the school is being built on the proper site," board chairman Clarke said.

Weiger DeJong of Stirling is the contractor for the $248,825 school designed by Watson and Wiegand of Belleville.

Outdoor Life IN HASTINGS
with ART MACCONNELLFOREST PROTECTION

Now that the snow has disappeared, grass fires are again becoming a menace to buildings, fences and tree plantations the latter particularly vulnerable to fire at this time of the year.

During the fire season it is unlawful in the Fire District to set fire out of doors for the purpose of burning grass, brush or other debris, except under the authority of a Fire Permit. The Fire Season in Ontario extends from April 1st to October 31st each year. The Tweed Fire District includes all of the district north of the southerly boundaries of Marmora, Huntingdon, Hungerford, Sheffield, Hinchinbrooke and Bedford Townships, excluding Horton Township in Renfrew County.

Fire Permits are available from Municipal Fire Wardens and Department of Lands and Forests Offices. The permits are issued free of charge.

Ranger Stations are now open 7 days a week and lookout towers are in the process of being manned. All smokes are being investigated.

A revision of the Forest Fires Prevention Act now makes it illegal to ignite fire works (firecrackers) within one thousand feet of a forest or woodland except under the authority of a Fire Permit. This legislation has been necessary, because of the extensive damage and cost of fighting fires which have been started by fire works.

Last year 2 persons in Tweed District alone were found guilty in Court and fined because of negligence with fire in the outdoors.

Spring Tree Planting Programme.

Forestry staff are now making preparations for the tree planting season, which will begin approximately mid April to May first depending on weather conditions.

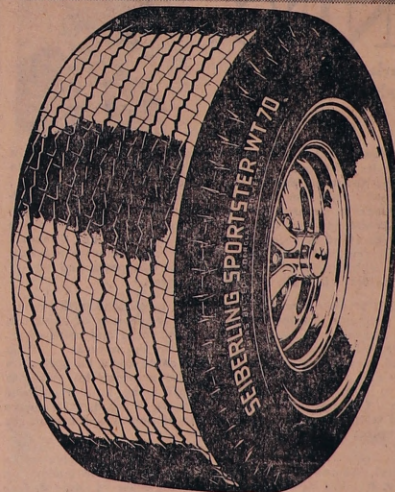

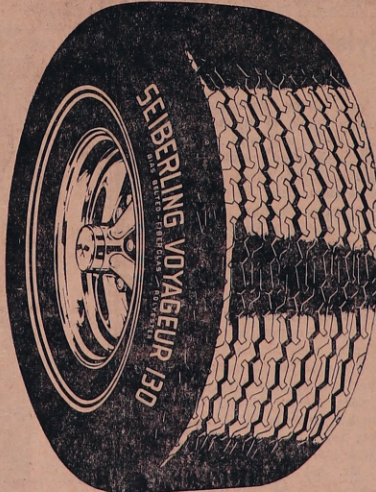

As soon as the snow disappears and machinery can get on the land, site preparations will begin, which involves furrowing or chemical treatment to reduce the competition for the small seedlings.

Approximately 288,000 seedlings will be planted in the Tweed Management area on property which is under agreement with Conservation Authorities or in private property where landowners have agreements for tree planting assistance under the Woodlands Improvement Act.

Persons wishing to be employed as tree planters should enquire at the Chief Ranger Office, Tweed.

BELL LINES

by Bob Carleton your telephone manager

As I sat down to plan my column this month, I couldn't help but think of an incident last year that had at least one Bell Canada tester wondering about his sanity. On two different occasions, two different repairmen sent him the same report about telephone difficulties near Chippewa, Ontario. Both reports stated, "drop wire chewed by llama". While one might be inclined to write the whole thing off as a publicity stunt to boost the Niagara peninsula as Canada's banana belt, the reports turned out to be legitimate. Llamas are kept at the Marine Wonderland and Game Farm at Chippewa and one of them decided to test his teeth on our drop wires.

While this was the first time we've had to contend with llamas, we have had problems keeping our cable out of the way of squirrels, lightning and bad weather. We've been burying more and more of it; it looks better and also protects the cable from the natural hazards I've mentioned. However, it also means that cable could be buried on your property and could be damaged if you're planning to excavate... whether to plant trees or shrubs, put up a fence, build a patio or a barbecue pit. One healthy thrust of a shovel, if its directly above our cable and telephone service in hundreds of homes and businesses could be disrupted.

So if you're planning any major digging, could you give us a call at 114 first. We can quickly tell you if there is cable buried on your property. If there is, we'll come over and show you where, free of charge. That way, you can avoid disrupting telephone service both for yourself and your neighbourhood.

"You got back just in time... you'll find your man in the Yellow pages!"

If you leave a babysitter in charge when you go out, don't forget to leave her a number where you can be reached. She should know where emergency numbers such as Fire, Police and Doctor are located too. Your phone book provides you with a special space for these numbers... right on the inside front cover. If you haven't already filled in these numbers, why not do it now. Your babysitter may never have to use them, but you'll feel more secure knowing she has them handy.

How much home are you missing through outdated wiring?

When this house was built it was hard to imagine all the wonderful ways in which electricity would be serving us today. That's why the wiring in so many older homes just isn't adequate for today's needs.

There are many signs. Fuses blowing. Lights dimming. Appliances performing sluggishly. Cluttered extension cords. Not enough outlets.

So, if you're planning to modernize your home, think first of the wiring. Have a qualified electrical contractor check it. You'll be surprised at how easily and inexpensively it can be updated. Or just ask your Hydro.

4-H Girls

Achievement Day

One hundred and three 4-H Home-making Club girls in South Hastings County held their "Needlecraft" Achievement Day on Saturday, April 12th, 1969. The days activities took place in the gymnasium of Moira Secondary School.

Each girl displayed her Record Book for the project as well as two projects on which she displayed her skill in embroidery. It was a very impressive display.

During the morning program girls from 14 clubs took part in the various activities. They judged a set of runners or tote bags and gave oral reasons for their choices, answered a quiz on the preparation of a Wall Hanging and tried their hand at 3 of the stitches that they had learned during the project.

During the afternoon part of the program each club presented a skit or exhibit and many guests were on hand to enjoy them. First on the program was an exhibit by the Wallbridge 3 Club entitled "Seven Basic Embroidery Stitches." Debbie McCormack was the commentator for this exhibit.

A Skit by the Sidney South 1 group entitled "The New Look in Embroidery" was presented by 6 girls from that club.

Linda Perry represented the Sidney South 2 Club as she gave comments on the exhibit "Embroidery Today and Yesterday."

Next, all the girls from the River Valley Club tried to show us how to carry a "Design from Idea to Cloth" by presenting a Skit.

Following this the Stirling Club presented the Exhibit "Treasures in Embroidery" with Ruth Wannamaker giving the comments.

The only demonstration of the day was presented by the Bethel-Zion Club with Darlene Dobson and Susan Ray showing us how to "Add A Stitch of Colour" to a wall-hanging.

To end the first part of the afternoon program Janet Skinner from Foxboro gave her comments on the exhibit "Embroidery From Other Lands."

At this time a 10 minute break was taken so that the visitors could have a look at the various exhibits that were on display.

Starting off the second part of the program Miss Doreen Hamill, visiting Home Economist from Victoria, Durham and Peterborough Counties took up the Wall Hanging Quiz that the girls had answered during the morning.

Miss Mary MacEachern, Home Economist in Hastings and Lennox and Addington County presented Advanced Honours, the top award of the day to Miss Joan Chisholm of the Wallbridge 3 club. Joan had completed 18 4-H Homemaking Club projects.

Recognition was also given to 2 leaders who had been helping with the clubs for 5 years. They were Mrs. Carman Huffman from the Plainfield club and Mrs. Cecil Keene from the Quinte Club.

All the girls from the Quinte Club then presented a skit to show us "How to Make a Wall Hanging."

Then Bonnie Rowe from Plainfield gave comments on the exhibit "The Sampler of Great Grandmother's Day" Bonnie was dressed in a costume from Grandmother's day and spoke to each of us as though we were her grandchildren.

Next the girls from the Melrose 2 Club presented a skit entitled "Colour Schemes in Embroidery."

Followed by an exhibit "Embroider Your Own Design" with Janet McMurter giving comments for the Carmel Club.

The last skit of the day was presented by the Wallbridge 1 Club with each member of the club giving a talk on the "Seven Basic Stitches."

One of our new clubs, Bay of Quinte, presented an exhibit "Traditions in Design of India" with Karen Dextator giving the comments.

The Melrose 1 Club presented their exhibit "Colour Schemes with Harmony" with Gloria McFarlane as commentator.

Miss Doreen Hamill, then gave a few comments on each skit to help them improve for future presentations. Next, Mrs. Margaret Woolf, visiting Home Economist from Northumberland and Prince Edward Counties gave a few helpful suggestions about each exhibit.

Mrs. Fred Wellman 1st Vice-President of Hastings East W.I.s represented the Women's Institutes in presenting Provincial and County Honour Awards to the following girls.

Provincial Honours

Barbara Gould, Shirley Osbourne, Gloria McFarlane, Connie Tucker.

County Honours

Janet Skinner, Carol Melbourn, Patsy Pascoe, Gail Martin, Barbara Jackson, Leslie Best, Debra Tomalty, Karen McComb, Brenda King.

Miss MacEachern closed the program by presenting Certificates of Achievement to all girls completing a 2nd project and sterling silver spoons to each leader and member completing this project, "Needlecraft."

Annual Community Fireworks Display Canvass Tuesday, May 6th

The Stirling Branch, Royal Canadian Legion is again sponsoring a big display of fireworks in celebration of Victoria Day, on Monday, May 19th.

A two-fold purpose is served by this Legion activity.

It presents to all local and district residents, and especially their children, the best possible fireworks display in Eastern Ontario at the least possible cost per person and under the safest and best viewing conditions; and the traditional celebration of May 24th, Victoria Day, in this way helps to eliminate a lot of irresponsible lighting of fireworks in the Village, with the consequent fire hazard. Parents can take the family to one big show outside the Village and enjoy the fireworks in safety.

In the past, this project has enjoyed the enthusiastic support of the community and Legion members are again canvassing to promote the sale of $1.00 tickets, which cover entrance and parking at the show.

Tickets are also on sale at Noble's Drugs, Patterson's Men's Wear, Wells Motors and Montgomery's Service Station.

Plans are being made for a larger display than ever before. As in other years, it is expected that the Guides and Scouts will participate in the festivities, and augment their treasures a bit to boot.

In view of all which, dear Public, when a Legion member calls at your door on Tuesday, May 6th, be ready to support this community project — the cost is small; your support is needed. Only $1.00 per carload, and a real bang-up show is planned.

Stirling Volunteer Fire Department Receives Recognition

The following letter was received by Stirling Fire Chief Graham Mouck from the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada.

In March of this year, the Stirling Volunteer Fire Department sponsored a Country Jamboree at the Stirling Theatre with the entire proceeds going towards this worthy cause.

Dear Chief Mouck:

Many thanks for your cheque in the amount of $529.00 representing the proceeds from your 1969 March Show for Muscular Dystrophy.

Youth and Old Age

The Senior Citizens enjoyed a very different programme last Thursday. Six students (all local) who are in the eleventh grade at Centennial — Gordon Hoad, Lana LaChapelle, Linda Potts, Linda Faulkner, Karen Johnson and Richard Camm — visited us on a class project. Gordon very capably headed the question period, which was taped for their class discussion on the subject: "Early Life and General Conditions As Compared With Those of the Present Time", and asked for suggestions to improve on them in the future.

Most of the good attendance took part in the discussion and all agreed that it was a nice way to pass the afternoon.

These students also entertained us with songs and music. Linda Potts and Linda Faulkner played piano solos and Richard Camm, playing his own accompaniment on his guitar, sang several popular recent recordings. Lana LaChapelle gave the speech that made her famous in a recent speaking contest.

Pres. Fred thanked the teen-agers for their visit and hoped that we had been of some assistance in their school project. He invited them to sit in and enjoy a lunch which was served by Helen Reid and Margaret Fitchett.

In olden days, teachers got $300., $500. and, a few, $800. a year. Labour was 50c and $1.00 a day and the farmer got about 3c a pound for pork. Fortunately, taxes were low for money was scarce, and nobody even thought of going on strike. Are you listening, world?

Kids Crusade Big Success

The week of April 21st to 27th was both exciting and beneficial to children of Stirling and surrounding community.

In case you were in the Village any one of these days at about 3.30 in the afternoon and saw crowds of children heading in a westerly direction from school, hurrying and with excitement written on their faces, they were heading for the Kids Crusade held at the Pentecostal Church, under the direction of Mrs. Fisk, of Roslin.

Mrs. Fisk took as her theme the Holy Bible, and the children learned many new and interesting things from this wonderful book.

Each day there were quizzes, games, contests, singing and prizes.

Closing night came all too soon and was held Sunday night with the parents attending a programme arranged by Mrs. Fisk, with each child participating, and was much enjoyed.

The average attendance for the week was 107 and approximately 150 attended Sunday evening.

Pastor and Mrs. Keith Goodman would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone for their help and co-operation in this effort and to all parents for their attendance Sunday evening.

We also extend a hearty welcome to join us in our Sunday School and services anytime.

Stirling Agricultural Society Makes Plans For Fall Fair

The Spring meeting of the Stirling Agricultural Society (Fair Board) was held in the Board Room of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food Office on Friday night, April 18th.

President George Sutherland chaired the meeting.

Clarence Fitchett reported on the midway secured for Stirling Fair and stated that the same firm had been engaged as last year — the C & S Shows.

Stirling Fair this year will be on Friday and Saturday, August 29th and 30th.

It was voted to give the Quatre Riding and Driving Club, Belleville, permission to use Stirling's six racing days for the Belleville track.

The tender of Glen Floud and Ray Rose was accepted for use of the Stirling Fair Grounds for the spring, summer and fall seasons.

It was decided to purchase a wire gate for the west entrance to the Fair Grounds.

Ross Jeffs was appointed to look after the grounds for sites during the Fair.

Entry fee for Stirling Fair was set at $1.00 per person, with no charge levied on motor vehicles for parking on grounds; students 50c each.

Do You Remember?

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
ISSUE APRIL 27th, 1944

Dr. J. A. Faulkner, former minister of Health in Hepburn Cabinet, died this (Thursday) morning in Toronto General Hospital. He was born in Stirling, son of the late Dr. Geo. Faulkner and Mrs. Faulkner. He represented West Hastings for the Liberals from 1934 to 1937.

A real estate deal of interest was completed this week when Kenneth Ray purchased Mrs. Robt. Girdwood's property on Church St., now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Palmer, Frank Rodgers, who recently joined the Royal Canadian Navy, was honoured Friday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rodgers. Rev. W. H. V. Walker acted as chairman.

Bethel UCW

On April 24th, the U.C.W. of Bethel met in Minto Community Hall with Mrs. T. Clements as hostess. Mrs. H. Holden welcomed visitors and members and read a poem, "Lovely Art", followed by prayer. Mrs. G. Clancy was accompanist for the hymn "He Leadeth Me".

The roll call, a verse containing the word "rain", was answered by 40 members and visitors. There were also several children present. Mrs. M. Wickens read the minutes and correspondence, including several

"thank you" notes. Mrs. J. Carlisle gave the treasurer's report and said that part of the allocation had been sent. There will be another quilting party. The offering was received.

Mrs. S. Thompson was convenor for the programme and worship service. Mrs. W. Heath was accompanist for the hymn, "Lord of Light, Whose Name Outshineth". The meditation on the theme, "Our Christian Task" or "Being an Ambassador of Christ" was given by Mrs. T. Clements. The Scripture, read by Mrs. O. Lightie, was taken from 2nd Corinthians, chapter 6. A poem, "Loving Goodwill" was read by Mrs. L. Hagerman, who also led in prayer. Mrs. F. Beckett and Mrs. J. Pollock sang a duet, "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling".

Mrs. J. Thompson, of Spring Brook, led in an interesting study of China — the old and the new. Questions were given each group of ladies and then coloured slides, with commentary were shown. A lively discussion and answers followed. Mrs. Thompson read a hymn, "Brotherhood of Man", and led in prayer. Miss J. Clements played several piano selections.

Mrs. J. Pollock thanked the hostess and programme convenor, with special thanks to Mrs. J. Thompson, to whom she presented a small gift. The meeting closed with the Benediction. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. Russett.

A tasty lunch was served and a social half hour enjoyed.

C.H.S.S. WALKATHON

Some people categorize us as radical, irresponsible, misguided teenagers.

We wish to inform these people that we are radicals, but constructive ones, because we see the need for change. Above all we do care; about our future and our present environment.

Therefore, we, the students of Centre Hastings Secondary School, under the supervision of the Students' Council, will undertake a walkathon from Madoc to Marmora on Saturday, May 10, beginning at 1 p.m. Proceeds will be given to the Mentally Retarded Children's Workshop in Campbellford.

We seek your financial assistance. When C.H.S.S. students approach you to sponsor their walk, be generous and support constructive radicals.

Home Owners Tax Reduction Continues Another Year

Ontario's system of property tax reduction for home-owners and tenants will continue in 1969 with few changes. Municipal Affairs Minister, Darcy McKeough, announced in the Legislature recently.

He proposed two main amendments.

1. The reduction will amount to no more than 50 per cent of the local taxes on each eligible property.

2. Crown-owned properties, both Federal and Provincial, are confirmed as being eligible for tax reductions to tenants.

Mr. McKeough said the system had proved in practice to be "the best available method" of relieving the pressure of local taxation on the individual household. It provided more than $100 million last year to some two million households.

He describes the system as a practical short-run measure that will likely be replaced at some time in the future by the inclusion of property relief in a Provincial income tax system.

The same equalization factor will be used in 1969 as in 1968, he said, with certain exceptions such as municipalities which have just been reassessed.

"In other words, if a municipality were to have the same mill rate in 1969 as it had last year, the amount of tax reduction applying to an individual household will be the same. If the mill rate goes up, the amount of tax reduction will also go up."

The 50 per cent minimum is being introduced to ensure that no properties are totally exempted from local taxes by this reduction, he said. This is in keeping with the principle of participation by every household in paying for local services. Summer cottages are an example of the low-taxation properties that will be affected by the change; some of these were totally exempted last year.

He said the change concerning Crown properties followed consultation with the Minister of Trade and Development and the Federal Minister of Finance. It covers eligibility for 1968 as well as for 1969. The Province owns about 20,000 rental housing units throughout Ontario, and the Federal Government owns about 10,000.

(By Susan Rose)

Howdy, partners! The Hastings County Riders had another Club meeting. Before business was discussed, each cowboy had time to give some interesting facts about his recent riding and training activities.

President "Chief" Moccasin opened the show by introducing the several new members to the old hands. Trophies, we decided, would be extra special this year for those prize horses who work so hard and faithfully for their masters. Club Shows and prize money were tossed about for quite awhile. After things got quieted down, we arranged for a friendly get-together on May 4th to watch each other skillfully control our broncs.

The next meeting will be the first Thursday of May at Tom Shepherd's, Foxboro. All are welcome. The following is one of the jokes:

the hands told:

Boss: "So you want to quit your job? Aren't your wages all right?"
Employee: "The wages are OK, but I'm afraid I'm doing a horse out of a job."

REPORT

WATCH OUT FOR INEXPERIENCED CYCLISTS

MOTORISTS: Children on bikes are everywhere these days, and some of them are experienced. Safe cyclists—but some are not. Give these young inexperienced cyclists the same consideration you'd show if one of them were your own child. Always overtake them cautiously. Never startle them with a sudden blast of your horn—and pass them with plenty of room to spare. Remember—your extra care could save a young cyclist from serious injury—and possibly his life.

During the week of April 13th to 19th officers of the Madoc Detachment, Ontario Provincial Police investigated 4 motor vehicle accidents all of a property damage nature.

4650 miles of area were patrolled during 732 working hours with 26 safety checks and 27 traffic warnings, 9 charges were laid under the Criminal Code of Canada and 3 charges laid under the Liquor Control Act with 18 charges laid under Highway Traffic Act.

51 hours were spent in court with Judge R. C. Jackson registering 31 convictions.

In connection with the Canadian Tire theft property of a value of $850.00 was recovered with the assistance of a citizen.

Belleville General Hospital Sets New Visiting Hours

Commencing Monday, April 28, Belleville General Hospital will adopt a system of "open visiting"—replacing the specified hours schedule now in vogue.

New visiting hours at the hospital now will be from 10:00 a.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Hospital Administrator Philip Rickard said he felt the change to open visiting would be a "progressive step" and convenience both out-of-town visitors and the hospital.

However, Mr. Rickard emphasized, the need always to keep the patients' welfare uppermost in mind.

"Visitors should avoid staying too long and only two persons should visit at any one time," he said.

He added that visitors must be prepared to leave a patient's room any time, when asked by doctors or nurses to wait elsewhere while a treatment is being carried out.

In addition to being a convenience for out-of-town visitors, Mr. Rickard said it was expected the change to open-visiting would benefit the hospital as the traditional daily 2:00 p.m. visitors' rush would be avoided.

Eccentrics

Elders who rebuke the young for eccentricities of dress and manner should remember some of the non-conformists of their own background. Small town and country places were delightfully represented with people who did their own thing without caring a whit for the censure of the majority.

There were men who felt a gold collar stud was enough adornment for a white shirt and shunned collars and ties. Legends flourished about individuals who had no faith in banks and stored their money in strange places.

Some only ate white-shelled eggs because they said the brown ones were impure. At least one couple in a locality, sourced by a matrimonial tiff or interference of relatives, resolutely remanded their lives by conversing only through a third party or written messages. There was a farmer so stubborn he sold his prize cow when she balked once at milking time.

Comic relief was provided by the staunch temperance advocate who refused to believe her raspberry vinegar was alcoholic, even when tipsy guests were apprehended by the law. She laid it to personal prejudice on the part of the authorities.

One gentle soul was so addicted to preserving life he shunned poison and hand-picked potato bugs, releasing them a mile away from his farm, which to the discomfort of some of his neighbors. A miser carried his false teeth in a box and only used them for eating, in order to save wear and tear.

Country storekeepers kept separate accounts for some men and women, who even went so far as to buy groceries individually. When you visited you were given special chairs, depending on which one you called on. Perhaps the champions of resolute eccentricity came from Nova Scotia. Ernest Buckler, in "Ox Bells and Fireflies," relates how this married couple hadn't spoken to each other in fifteen years but managed to produce three sets of twins during the mute time!—The Montreal Star

If someone were to pay you 10 cents for every kind word you ever spoke about people, and collect 5 cents for every unkind word, would you be rich or poor?

Does it ever seem to you that your paycheck has turned into a receipt for your payroll deductions?

Dollars and Good Sense

by WILLIAM J. MARTIN

This column is a regular weekly feature prepared by the family Financial Counselling Service of the Avco Delta Corporation, P.O. Box 2820, London, Ontario. All questions submitted to the above address will be answered, in print or by return mail. Names will not be used in print. However, all questions should be accompanied by a complete name and address.

Dear Sir: All the so-called financial experts that I've read or heard seem to agree on one thing with reference to the use of credit. They say to make the biggest down payment that you can in order to save on interest over the lifetime of the loan. I would assume that you agree with this philosophy. — C.O.M.

It sounds like you're testing either my so-called expertise or my sincerity. I'll try to do well in both categories.

Yes, of course, in general I agree with that philosophy. It's sound and it makes sense. Interest, in order to be meaningful to any of us, must be translated into dollars and cents. Thus, what you and the experts are saying is this: the smaller amount of money you finance (borrow), the less money you will end up paying (in interest) over the years. And logic dictates that the less you pay for the product or service, the better deal you've made for yourself.

However, I do quarrel with blind adherence to this sound policy in each and every case, particularly as it involves a major purchase, such as a new automobile or, especially, a home. Here's what I mean:

The car you buy may be financed over a three-year period. You'll probably be paying on your home mortgage for 25 or even 30 years. Therefore, the factor I would look at when deciding whether to put an extra $100 down on my car or an extra $1,000 down on my house is, what will this do to my monthly payments and what will the lack of that extra $100 or $1,000 do to my budget and my standard of living today.

It's true; over the lifetime of the loan those extra dollars down on your purchase will save you some money. But will you be dangerously strapped for cash today? Will you be sacrificing some essentials (furniture to make the house liveable, for example)? Will you be leaving yourself vulnerable to emergencies with all your cash tied up in down payments?

And, what is equally important, will the increased down payment reduce your monthly obligation by so little that you will scarcely notice the difference?

No, sir, I think I'll embrace the philosophy of the experts (and hope that by so doing I'll pass your test) and at the same time, point out that this theory is best applied after being mixed with a generous quantity of common sense.

Recently I wrote a column on "watching out for words" that frequently do not mean to the seller what the seller intends the buyer to think they mean; words such as "20% off," "below cost," etc. The column was written after research in response to a question from a reader who wanted to know what is meant by the term "lifetime guarantee".

Here are a few carryover thoughts created by this same research.

Beware (or at least be alert) to the letter which tells you that you have been selected for a prize, or you are the "lucky winner" in a contest which you never entered. Obviously, I haven't made a personal investigation into every promotion of this kind, but the ones I have looked into have all turned out to be "come-ons" which involve putting out your hard-earned cash.

Be just as careful of contests which you have entered. I am personally familiar with the "win a free thing-majigs" which are part and parcel of many home furnishing fairs. Almost every booth seems to have a pad of forms, pencils and a box into which you drop the form with your name and address filled in. The drawing will be held on the closing day of the fair.

Weeks later you will get a notice that you have won and instructions for picking up your prize. No, indeed, it won't be sent to you; you must pick it up — and that's where the struggle begins. In one case that I know of, the prize was a portable sewing machine and believe it or not, the winner actually received a sewing machine — but not before she accepted the one string attached to the prize — a contract to service the machine for a period of three years, at a total cost far in excess of what she might have paid for a sewing machine somewhere else. The winner never had an occasion to call on the firm for service; so, in effect, she bought a portable sewing machine. Now, maybe you think this is perfectly all right, and I can't debate either the legality or the ethics of the promotion. All I'm saying is watch out for the "lucky winner" letter. You may find yourself buying something in which you have no interest.

If you like, I'll continue to take a column from time to time to point some of the other "word games" which buyer and seller frequently play.

OF MANY THINGS

LSD AT GREENHORN FARM

No, we don't have the drug, but we do have the experience!

Like most men, I have always wanted a slow around my life, a shine and lift and sparkle. I want the violins to play sweeter and reach higher notes. When I hear a talented singer who is too legit, I yearn to hear her let go with all her heart and reach far out — like the Beatles but with talent. I do not think men should lead lives of quiet desperation, tied to some boring treadmill: the squirrels romping happily in my woodlot are wiser than they.

I believe it has been this deep yearning by all men for some glow of beauty in their lives that leads to drug experimentation. LSD users take the stuff to "get out of this world", to leave their humdrum carcasses and have a fake spiritual experience.

Well, we want none of that at Greenhorn Farm — but we have LSD. This afternoon, when I had spent an hour with hatchet, pick and shovel, I strolled to the flat rock beside our back creek for my LSD—Long Sit Down. Talk about a psychedelic experience! I was pleasantly tired, physically, and all my senses were alert. The Creek sang its best song, tied to no known scale, and the sun had come out briefly to glaze the branches of the huge cypress trees overhanging the creek. Smoke from my sweet Brigham drifted fragrant and blue in the clear air, and the birds sang all-out, the way good singers should. Ah, why get out of this world when you can get into it deep, feel it, breathe it real and sweet and honest?

Anyone tempted to fool with LSD ought to try a Long Sit Down instead.

Preferably, find a sweet-voiced creek lined with sun-glazed cypress trees, where birds are singing; but failing that, a bench in any city park should do, or even a long look through your office window at the surrounding sky, or even the murky rooftops of other buildings. Remember all that stuff you learned as a youth, about infinity in a grain of sand, about the Kingdom within you; well, by golly, all that stuff was true! No, get into it, deeply, and while it might not be quite as dreamy as dope, it's a darn sight more substantial.

Prince Ed. - Hastings Liberals Invite Hull To Meeting

The regular meeting of the Pr. Ed. - Hastings Liberal Association was held in their office in Trenton on Monday night, April 21, with a large contingent present from the riding.

It was decided to hold the annual meeting in Batawa Recreation Hall on Wednesday, September 17 at 8 p.m. The members of the association will be asked to vote on a date for a nominating convention to select the candidate for the riding.

An auction sale will be held by the association July 12 at Hennessey's Auction Barn, in Brighton to raise money for operating expenses. Donations of furniture, handicrafts, art-work, clothing, etc., are being requested from the public and pick up will be made by W. R. Menzies, Trenton, James Forestell, Campbellford and Mac Dumlage, Cherry Valley.

ASK SIGNS

A motion was passed that a letter be sent to Robert Nixon, the leader of the opposition at Queen's Park, asking him to contact the Department of Tourism and the Department of Highways to see whether a sign could be placed on Highway 401 showing the exit for the Trent Waterway. The federal government has spent $50,000,000 improving this waterway, and it should get the same recognition as provincial parks on highway signs, the members said.

A letter is also being sent to Hon. Paul Hellyer, Minister of Transport, asking that an illuminated sign be placed at No. 2 lock that will be visible from Highway 401 to tourists and others passing. It was pointed out that there is only a very small sign on the bridge now saying TRENT RIVER and most people do not even see it.

It was decided to keep the office in Trenton above the Bank of Nova Scotia open every Saturday morning (except on holiday weekends) from April 26 to the end of June from 10 to 12 o'clock. This will be for the convenience of the electors in the riding. Several members of the executive will be present to conduct interviews.

COHO SALMON

A six page brief dealing with the desirability of planting coho salmon in Lake Ontario in this area was presented to the executive and passed. Copies will be distributed to members of the Legislature, municipal councils, tourist associations, sportsmen's clubs and the news media asking for their support.

Two Caught

Donald Bond, Picton, reported that two coho salmon were caught at Point Traverse at the south end of the county last year by local fishermen. He stated they were of the opinion that they were part of a sample planting that the New York Fish and Wildlife Department had made on the south shore of Lake Ontario in 1967.

Mr. Cunningham stated that the electors are being kept fully informed on the monetary support that the federal government gives to local agencies and gave as examples: 50 per cent for post secondary school education, 90 per cent to home project, 50 per cent to welfare, grants to bridges, conservation authorities, the ARDA program and farm loans.

To Invite Hull

The next meeting of the association will be held on May 20th, at the summer resort of Miss Merle Pearson, Picton. It was decided to invite Bobby Hull to this meeting to ask for his views on the Canadian National Hockey Team and what Canada can do to improve our standing in world competition. If constructive suggestions can be formulated at this meeting, they will be sent to Hon. John Munro, Minister of Health and Welfare in the Federal cabinet.

Pine Grove Women's Institute

Pine Grove W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Alex Tanner April 16th for their annual meeting. There were seven members present. The president, Mrs. Don Irish, opened the meeting with the Opening Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. The Roll Call was answered by payment of dues.

The Conveners of the Standing Committees gave their reports.

The slate of officers for 1969-70 are President, Mrs. Don Irish; 1st vice, Mrs. Ivan Clare; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Farley Lindenfield; Public Relations Officer, Mrs. Harold Dettor; District Director, Mrs. Farley Lindenfield; Branch Director, Mrs. Roswell Reid; Pianist, Mrs. Ivan Clare; Penalties for Friendship, Mrs. Dave Hollinger.

Standing Committees — Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. Roswell Reid; Citizenship and Education, Mrs. Ivan Clare; Historical Research, Mrs. Dave Hollinger; Home Economics and Health, Mrs. Don Irish; Resolutions, Mrs. Harold Dettor.

Mrs. Alex Tanner gave a reading Remember When. The meeting closed with the Queen and Institute Grace.

The hostess and lunch committee served lunch.

New Hydro Plant Bears Historic Name

Ontario Hydro's $275 million coal-burning thermal-electric plant, to be built on the Lake Ontario shoreline near Bath, will be known as Lennox generating station.

The 2,000,000-kilowatt plant, slated to produce first power in 1975, derives its name from part of the historic county — Lennox and Addington — in which it is located.

The area was first settled in 1784 by United Empire Loyalists and was named after Charles Lennox, Duke of Richmond and Henry Addington, Viscount Sidmouth.

The first Canadian steamer was built at Bath in 1817. And now, a little more than a century and a half later, Hydro is going to build a giant steam plant in the same area.

Not unlike the first Canadian steamship where steam energy was used to drive the screw, steam-power will be used to turn the Lennox station's four 500,000-kilowatt turbine-generators.

No Licence Needed For A Wife

For the first time in the memory of many an Ontario fisherman, he will have to pay a fee of $3.00 for the privilege of fishing in his favourite waters during 1969. This applies to all males 19 years of age and over.

The three dollars only gives him a licence to angle - fish with a rod and line. If he wants to do other things such as catch minnows for bait, that will cost another dollar. If he picks up a few smelt this spring when they are running, this is an additional $1.00 fee. A licence to take fish with a dip net for personal use, where this is legal will cost $2.00. So, if a fisherman wants to be fully licensed to do all those things that fishermen are wont to do when they are pursuing their favourite sport, it will cost a total of $7.00. By the way, wives do not need fishing licences. This is impossible to understand as frequently they catch most of the fish.

WHAT HAVE YOU GOT TO LOSE?

Given an inch of a glowing cigarette or burning matchstick dropped carelessly, fire will take a square mile (and more) of forest. Given a few cubic inches of old oil and rags in a corner, fire will take a whole acre of factory.

Given an inch or so . . . of frayed extension cord, or curtains too close to a stove, or a fireplace screen too narrow . . . fire will take your home and the lives which are in it.

Year after year, fire takes an average of 600 lives in Canada. Five times as many Canadians are disfigured or injured, and property worth more than $150 million is destroyed by fire.

By any of these criteria, the cost of fire-causing carelessness is great. But the most terrible toll is in young lives. A third of those who die by fire are children.

Some of these children die because they are left alone, some die because they play with matches. There are other reasons too—but virtually all the deaths are preventable. Children die in fires through the ignorance or the carelessness of their parents or other adults.

Don't give fire an inch - you've got far too much to lose!

ACQUAINT YOURSELF WITH TOWN PLANNING

This is one of a series of short articles prepared by your Planning Board for the purpose of acquainting residents of Stirling with Town Planning.

APPROVAL OF OFFICIAL PLANS

Since an official plan is a projection of anticipated growth and planning needs for about 20 years in the future, and as it is impossible to predict accurately what the actual needs of the community will be over such a period, unforeseen circumstances will arise that will necessitate amendments to the plan from time to time. Thus it is essential that the official plan be reviewed constantly and adapted to meet the changing needs of the area.

An official plan does not become "official" until it has been recommended by the planning board, adopted by the municipal council, and approved by the Minister of Municipal Affairs. Before the Minister approves a proposed official plan, he must refer it to the council. Amendments may be prepared recommended, adopted and approved in the same manner as official plans but a municipal council may initiate an amendment even though the planning board has not endorsed it.

Where an official plan has been approved, this will mean that:

(a) No public work may be carried out unless it conforms to the official plan;

(b) No By-Laws may be passed that do not conform to the official plan;

(c) Plans of subdivision will not be approved if they are not in conformity with the plan;

(d) Committees of adjustment must have regard to the provisions of the official plan when granting a minor variance from a zoning by-law or when deciding whether or not to grant a consent to the conveyance of land, etc., under the Planning Act.

Having an effective official plan in force will provide an overall concept for the planning area and a frame of reference for decisions affecting the physical environment. It also makes for a desirable degree of continuity in the policies and practices that effect the municipality and the individuals in the community in respect of land use, land sales, services, etc.

HASTI-AGRI-GRAM

THE FARM NEWS LETTER OF HASTINGS COUNTY

BASIC HERD

by Wayne Martia

With the coming of spring weather all our County newspapers contain many farm Auction Sale notices each week. A familiar problem facing many farm operators when they sell their farm business is the amount of resulting income subject to tax. This same matter occurs when the farm operator dies and he has not done sufficient estate planning.

In many cases, if a Basic Herd has been established, some of these income and tax problems might not have resulted. A taxpayer who is engaged in the business of production for sale of livestock or livestock products and who maintains a permanent herd of cattle, horses, sheep or swine for that purpose may apply for approval of a basic herd, to be established as at January 1, 1947, or the commencement of operations, whichever is later.

A taxpayer may apply for a Basic herd to be established as of: (1) January 1, 1947, for a taxpayer who was engaged in livestock operations on that date; or (2) the date of commencement of operations, if operations began after January 1, 1947, in the event of a dispersal sale (other than on the death of a taxpayer) an application must have been filed at least 30 days prior to the date of sale. In the event of the death of a taxpayer who was eligible to apply but had not done so, application must be made by his executor within six months of the date of death of such taxpayer.

In order that the approval of a Basic Herd may be maintained, a taxpayer who has been granted such approval will be required to file income tax returns annually.

If a Basic Herd hasn't been established, or isn't practical to establish, and a taxpayer sells his livestock (or grain or other inventory) upon or after ceasing to carry on a business, the amount received from the sale of inventory, excluding any capital realization from a basic herd, is income but the taxpayer may elect to have the amount taxed as though one third of the amount has been income of each of the last three years in which he carried on business.

If you are planning a dispersal sale, or planning your business for the future, you should discuss the provisions of Basic Herd and the sale of inventory election option with your accountant and the District Taxation Office.

DO YOU HAVE A GREEN THUMB?

(by Ray Pender)

Generally this time of year those of us who have and those of us who think we have a green thumb begin thinking about planting a garden or a few flowers. While we are still in the mood, let's do something about it before spring fever changes all this.

Many home owners may not have considered it worthwhile to sow a garden, even though worried over the problems presented by inflation. With this in mind, the saving entailed through the use of a garden has been calculated. The average garden is roughly an area of 30 by 100 feet. If the vegetables from this area are consumed during the summer period their value at present prices is close to $30.00. If a quantity of produce is stored and consumed during the winter, the value of the small garden is then about $100.00.

The expense of home gardening is small. The cost of the seed alone will be about $5.00. Aside from the seed, if $2.00 is added for fertilizer, and the same for spray materials, the total cost of these three main items is still under $10.00.

If you are wondering about planning your garden, there are a number of publications available from the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food office in Stirling which are available upon request. These publications include No. 363 Vegetable Production Recommendations No. 536, Vegetable Garden Requirements, No. 312 Pest Control Chart as well as a number of others containing information on flowers.

WHAT IS BIGNESS?

By W. D. Tipper

Considerable confusion exists in the viewpoints of many farm operators. The common complaint is that everyone seems to be telling the farmer that he has to get bigger. The trouble is that this question of bigness is too often interpreted in terms of acres or of number of cows. This is particularly true in the dairy industry where the farmer thinks in many cases that bigness means doubling his herd. My interpretation of bigness is the most and best production that can be achieved as a result of the individual's efforts. To me, a more correct saying is 'better before bigger' than 'bigger before better'.

Let's take a look at the dairy industry as an example. If the average milk cow produces 7500 lbs. at the present time, and the provincial Dairy Herd Improvement Association average is 10,500 or better then we have a lot of opportunities to get better within the same framework we presently own. If in the crop world our county average for barley is 44.2 bushels per acre, and the provincial average is 46.3 bushels per acre, then there is not much of a difference. But at the same time a crop summary we conducted in the county in 1968 showed that this group averaged 58.6 with top yields in the 90 bushel class then there is a real chance to get better in the crop production.

In a recent article I wrote about the possibilities of the relatively small shipper getting into the bulk milk business, the suggestions made are still valid. They have been discussed with many shippers throughout the county. It is quite obvious that many people object to the bulk milk system because it seems to tell them that they have to have a bigger operation. What I was trying to suggest in a positive way — that there is an opening for many of our smaller shippers in the bulk business and at costs they can afford.

Industrial milk shippers who have made a decision to get bigger have to take into consideration two or three basic points. First of all, if we think of medium quality cows with production of 10,000 lbs., the cost of producing milk per hundred weight decreases sharply only up to about a 30-cow size. Beyond 30 cows this decreased cost disappears and the returns have to be considered strictly as a straight production operation. Most important is the fact that there is a good deal of variation in costs among farms producing the same amount of milk. As a result, a comparatively small but efficient dairy farmer can earn the same income as a much larger less efficient operator. This leads back to the primary point of getting better before bigger because then the bigness will really pay off.

IN THE QUINTE BEEF WORLD

by W. D. Tipper

One point that many farm operators do not recognize is that 42% of the cattle meat produced in Ontario comes from the dairy industry. This would suggest that many dairy farmers ought to take a close look at this important market. There is no doubt that the techniques of crossbreeding will see a greater number of commercial cattle developed not only by the operator who classes himself as a beef man but also by the dairy farmer who in his culling process uses good beef sires on the bottom of his dairy producing cows.

This all leads to the point that Mom basically all cattlemen in the area have an interest in the County Beef Improvement Association. In Hastings and Prince Edward one beef cause it seems to tell them that they have to have a bigger operation. What I was trying to suggest in a positive way — that there is an opening for many of our smaller shippers in the bulk business and at costs they can afford.

Other projects have been planned for the year. Two that are being brought into operation at the moment include arrangements for the annual Steer Show and Sale which is a joint operation with the Quinte Exhibition at Belleville, the other is a Beef Carcass Competition which will enable the competitor to follow through and see what type of carcass is being produced because it includes a visit to the slaughter plant. Entry forms for these two competitions have been sent out to as many people as possible. Anyone missed can obtain additional copies from the office in Stirling. Other programs will include special classes at Fall Fairs, work with 4-H beef members, plus special activities in the form of bus trips and meetings.

COULD BE

It was dark in the parlor. Mom came downstairs into the hall. Hearing voices she peeped into the parlor, then jabbed on the lights. There on the sofa was her pretty young daughter, necking very passionately with a strange young man. Mom became very indignant and shouted: "Well I never!". The daughter looked up and said: "You must have."

Though details of the operation have not been revealed, it appears that good progress is being made in regards to the proposed mushroom growing and processing facility near Wellington.
